Next Desert Whispers DEADLINE
7 DAYS PRIOR to publication on the 15th of the month.

DESERT WHISPERS

The intent of DESERT WHISPERS is to publish a variety of information from all aspects of life in North Lake County. We neither support nor condemn any ideas, creed, religion, custom, attitude, belief or law. Opinions expressed are not necessarily the opinions of the Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District Board members, staff, personnel or advertisers. The Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District is not responsible for errors in articles and/or ads submitted to be published without change. The Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District Board of Directors reserves the right to reject any submitted material for any reason.

DESERT WHISPERS welcomes letters to the Editor. Letters should be printed or written clearly. Each letter must be signed. DESERT WHISPERS reserves the right to condense long letters or to edit for content. We will avoid this whenever possible. DESERT WHISPERS reserves the right to judge the acceptability of a letter in regards to vulgarities, profanities, or slanderous content.

Deadlines for DESERT WHISPERS are at least seven (7) Days before issue dates of the 1st and 15th of each month. Please have your ad or article to the DESERT WHISPERS office BEFORE the published deadline. If the ad or article is NOT received by 2 pm on the deadline, it may not make it into that issue. Ads and articles can be received by mail, by e-mail, or dropped off at the office.

Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District

Invites everyone to enjoy the Park and Rec properties.

We ask that while enjoying the properties; specifically, the Golf Course, the Rodeo Grounds,
the playground, the multi-use field and Baert Lake, that you be a good steward and please do not litter, please maintain control of your pets by keeping dogs on a leash and/or maintaining constant supervision.
If your dog should defecate on the premises, please be sure to pick up after them.

Horses and camping are only permitted at the Rodeo Grounds.

Being good stewards and taking pride in these properties reflects on our community as a whole.

Thank you for your continued support of Christmas Valley

What are ADRCs?

ADRCs provide information and services to seniors, people with disabilities, their families and caregivers regardless of income. With a statewide searchable database, consumers are able to access over 6,000 resources: www.ADRCoOregon.org. There is also a statewide toll free number:

1-855-ORE-ADRC (1-855-673-2372).

It is one name, one number, and one website to make it easier for Oregonians to find the information and help they need.

ADRC Core Services:

- Information, referral and awareness
- Options counseling and assistance
- Access to public and privately funded long-term care programs
- Prevention and early intervention

The ADRC for Lake County is the Klamath and Lake Counties Council on Aging.

Smoky Skies in Christmas Valley

If you stepped outside in Christmas Valley today, you likely noticed the familiar, milky haze hanging low over the sagebrush and towering volcanic formations. Shifting summer winds have pushed wildfire smoke across Northern Lake County and much of Central Oregon, blurring the normally crisp high-desert horizon.

While air quality conditions can swing quickly out here depending on regional fire activity and afternoon gusts, particulate levels today mean the air is noticeably dry and heavy. Local residents—especially older adults, kids, and anyone dealing with respiratory issues—are encouraged to take it easy, keep windows closed during peak smoke hours, and save strenuous outdoor tasks for clearer days.

Keep an eye on the afternoon breezes, as conditions can shift rapidly across the basin. Stay safe and hydrate!

Track Wildfires in Real Time with Watch Duty

Staying aware of nearby wildfire activity can change in an instant across the high desert. Watch Duty is a free, non-profit app designed to give residents fast, verified wildfire information directly on their smartphones. Run by trained professionals and retired first responders monitoring radio dispatch around the clock. You can view interactive maps showing active fire boundaries, and receive immediate notifications when fire, smoke conditions, or evacuation notices affect our local area. Free of ads and simple to use. Search "Watch Duty" on your phone's app store to download.

Protecting Yourself and Your Pets During Tick Season

Tick season runs from early spring through late fall. While tick-borne illnesses like Lyme disease and Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever are rare in our region, basic outdoor safety goes a long way in preventing bites.

Understand the Threat

Oregon has roughly 20 hard tick species, but only four regularly attach to humans. The Western Black-Legged Tick—the primary transmitter of Lyme disease is mostly found in Western Oregon. Ticks cannot fly or jump; they wait on tall grass or brush to cling to passing hosts. In most cases, a tick must remain attached for 24 to 48 hours to pass along an infection.

Prevention Tips

- Avoid Habitats: Stay on cleared paths and avoid brushing against tall grass, sagebrush, or damp woodpiles.
- Dress Defensively: Wear light clothing to spot ticks easily. Tuck pant legs into socks, and opt for smooth synthetic fabrics or rubber boots.
- Use Repellents: Apply DEET to skin or Permethrin to clothing and footwear according to product labels. Always wash hands after applying.
- Inspect Often: Check clothes every few hours outdoors and do a full body check daily, focusing on hairlines, armpits, and skin folds.

Proper Removal Steps

If you do happen to find a tick, act quickly:

1. Grasp Close to Skin: Use fine-tipped tweezers to grab the tick's mouthparts right at the skin level.
2. Pull Straight Up: Apply steady pressure without twisting to avoid breaking off the mouthparts.
3. Clean & Save: Wash the bite area with soap and water. Save the tick in a sealed bag with a damp paper towel for up to four weeks for identification.
4. Log Details: Record the date, location, and whether the tick was engorged.

A Word of Caution

Never use heat, petroleum jelly, or nail polish to remove a tick. Smothering or irritating the tick causes it to stress and regurgitate bacteria into the wound.

What to Do If You Find a Tick on Your Pet

Checking your pets for ticks after outdoor activities is essential for their health. If you spot a tick attached to your dog or cat, don't panic—follow these simple steps to remove it safely and effectively.

Safe Removal Steps

1. Prepare Your Tools: Grab a pair of fine-tipped tweezers or a specialized tick removal tool, rubbing alcohol, and a small container or sealed baggie. Have someone hold your pet still to keep them calm.

2. Grasp Near the Skin: Part your pet's fur to get a clear view. Place the tweezers as close to your pet's skin as possible, directly over the tick's head or mouthparts.
3. Pull Straight Up: Apply gentle, steady upward pressure. Do not twist, jerk, or squeeze the tick's body, as this can break off the mouthparts in the skin or force fluids back into your pet.
4. Clean the Area: Once removed, disinfect the bite site on your pet with mild soap and water or rubbing alcohol. Wash your hands thoroughly.

Post-Removal Care

- Keep the Tick: Place the tick in a sealed bag or container with a damp cloth or cotton ball for a few weeks. If your pet becomes sick, your vet can identify or test the tick.
- Monitor Your Pet: Keep an eye on the bite area for infection (redness, swelling, or heat). Watch your pet over the next 2–3 weeks for signs of tick-borne illness, including lethargy, joint stiffness, lameness, or a loss of appetite.
- Consult Your Vet: Reach out to your veterinarian if you couldn't get the entire head out, or if your pet displays any symptoms.

Important Warning: Never use old home remedies like burning the tick with a match, covering it with petroleum jelly, or painting it with nail polish. Irritating the tick causes it to stress and regurgitate bacteria into your pet's bloodstream.

Heat Precautions for Pets

The Humane Society of Central Oregon (HSCO) would like to offer tips on keeping your pet safe in the heat. With the arrival of extreme heat, the best spot for your pet is inside a safe, cool house. Dogs and cats cannot cool their body temperatures as efficiently as humans.

Remember that older, short muzzle and overweight dogs are more likely to overheat during hot weather. You can provide a wading pool to aid in cooling. Pets need exercise but do it in the cooler hours of the day. Exercise your dog in the morning or evening when temperatures and pavement are cool. The paw pads can get injured from the hot pavement and melted tar can get stuck to pad and hair. Press your hand on pavement for 10 seconds, and if it's not tolerable for you, it's too hot for your pets.

Leaving your pet in a parked car can be a deadly mistake. The temperature inside a car can reach 120 degrees in a few minutes. Even partially open windows won't protect your pet from heatstroke. Dogs in truck beds can suffer injury or heat stroke. Veterinarians know all too well dogs that have fallen out of the truck bed which resulted in severely injured dogs or motor vehicle accidents from people swerving to avoid the dog. If you cannot touch the hot truck bed with your bare hand, your dog should not be on the hot metal. Debris from the road damages eyes.

"Every year the Humane Society of Central Oregon warns people to keep their pets safe from the dangers of warm temperatures," says Lynne Ouchida, community outreach manager. "Unfortunately, every year we hear of animals needlessly suffering from heat stroke. When summer heat hits, the City of Bend animal control receive four to eight calls per day regarding dogs left in hot cars." The Humane Society of Central Oregon is located one mile south of Reed Market Road on 27th Street in Bend. The shelter is open Monday through Friday 10:00am-5:30pm and Saturday 10:00am-5:30pm. For more information call the Humane Society of Central Oregon at 541-382-3537 or visit www.hsco.org.

Oregon Humane Society

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Join our volunteer program at the Christmas Valley Rural Fire Protection District. Your volunteerism will help your community by providing much needed resources to respond to fires, vehicle accidents, assistance to other departments & organizations, etc. and to help provide community education regarding fire suppression and other hazards.

Training is provided, but if you have prior experience, that is a huge plus. We are ready for change and to support the growth of our community by enlarging our department staff with volunteers you can depend on and trust. Your time, care, and support can make a real impact.

Come to a weekly training at the fire hall on Tuesdays at 6:00pm or contact a board member if you have any questions or would like to volunteer.

The Lifeline of Christmas Valley: Volunteer Fire & EMS

In a rural basin like Christmas Valley, distant support is miles away. Local volunteer firefighters and EMS responders are the only immediate line of defense when a medical crisis, accident, or fire strikes.

- Direct Local Impact: Your hands-on response directly saves local lives, homes, and land.
- Community Resilience: A strong volunteer team keeps emergency response times fast and reliable for all of us.
- No Experience Required: Complete professional training is provided and fire safety protection equipment.

Small towns like ours runs on the dedication of neighbors who step up. Without local volunteers, response times lengthen and emergency capacity shrinks, putting our entire high desert community at risk.

Joining Fire, EMS, or both it isn't just about answering calls; it's about providing the vital protection that allows our remote town to thrive. Whether responding to medical calls or fighting fires, your time makes a life saving impact.

THANK YOU

This is not a buckle series and is not intended to put cash into rider's pockets but it is rather for riders to just enjoy some fun competition and comradely with fellow riders.

To the Members of Our Community,

On behalf of the North Lake Community Fireworks Fund & Pyro Crew, I want to express our deepest gratitude to everyone who contributed financially to this year's Fourth of July fireworks display.

As a community, we rely entirely on local donations, business sponsorships, and volunteer efforts to make this celebration possible. This year, our community stepped up in a major way. Because of your generosity, we met our fundraising goals and hosted a spectacular show that brought Hundreds of neighbors, families, and visitors together around North Lake.

Seeing our community gather to celebrate our nation's independence reminds us of how special this area truly is. Whether you donated a few dollars, or sponsored the event through your business, you played a vital role in keeping this beloved tradition alive.

Thank you for your continued support, your civic pride, and your investment in our community's shared memories. We are already looking forward to making next year's celebration even brighter.

Like and follow us on Facebook at:

Local Voices, Local Choices: Why Your Involvement in Christmas Valley's Special Districts Matters

Living in Christmas Valley means being part of a unique, tight-knit rural community. We rely on ourselves and our neighbors to keep things running smoothly. But have you ever stopped to think about who makes the decisions behind the essential services we use every day--our emergency services, park and recreation facilities, domestic water, and fire department?

That responsibility falls on our Special Districts and the volunteer boards that govern them.

Special districts are local government at its most direct level. They exist for one purpose: to serve our specific community needs. Because they operate right here at home, you have a direct say in how our tax dollars are spent, how services are run, and what the future of Christmas Valley looks like.

Why Getting Involved Makes a Real Difference

When you attend district meetings, ask questions, or vote in local elections, you ensure the community's best interests remain the top priority. Here is why active participation is vital:

Direct Impact on Daily Life: Decisions made by local boards affect the emergency response available when you call for help, and the recreation spaces our families enjoy.

Accountability and Transparency: Active community members keep boards accountable, ensuring operations are run fairly, ethically, and efficiently.

Fresh perspective: Communities thrive when diverse voices contribute. Your unique background, skills, and ideas can solve long-standing challenges.

Step Up: Consider Running for a Board Position

It's easy to look at local issues and wish things were done differently--but serving as a board member gives you the platform to actually make those improvements happen.

You don't need decades of government experience to be an effective board member. What matters most is:

- A genuine care for Christmas Valley and its residents.
- A willingness to listen, learn, and collaborate.
- A commitment to transparency, stewardship, and fair leadership.

Serving on a board is one of the most impactful ways to give back. It gives you a seat at the table to ensure decisions are made with integrity, practical common sense, and the long term well-being of our community in mind.

You Can Start Today

You don't have to run for office right away to make a difference. Here are a few simple ways to get involved. Attend Board Meetings, Stay Informed, read meeting minutes and agendas to understand ongoing projects and budget discussions. Speak Up, share your constructive thoughts during public comment periods. Consider running, when election cycles approach or board vacancies open up, step forward and throw your hat in the ring.

Christmas Valley is strongest when its citizens are engaged. Let's work together to shape the future of our community--because no one cares about Christmas Valley like the people who live here!
