Code Enforcement Sought to Clean Up Christmas Valley

Kurt Liedtke, Lake County Examiner

Garbage, abandoned vehicles and rotting trailers have long been an unwelcome sight along Christmas Valley Hwy, but a group of concerned local residents are urging Lake County to act to change this through enforcement of current land use codes.

Through nuisance complaints and land use violation claims, citizens are banding together to push Lake County to act proactively on current codes regarding storage, excessive debris and permitted use of lots as a primary residence. As an unincorporated community the Lake County Commissioners are its only representatives, but being over 100 miles away based in Lakeview local issues in northern Lake County can often go unnoticed unless residents bring problems to their attention.

"I'd like to see the area cleaned up and deserted items hauled away," said Carl Shumway, one of several Christmas Valley residents who spoke directly with Lake County Commissioners and the Lake County Planning Department identifying over 30 specific lots in violation including RVs being used as residences, septic tanks used for trailers and excessive garbage. "I hate to pick on anybody that needs a place to live, but we can keep it up and remove the abandoned stuff."

Seeking enforcement of code violations for dump sites, overgrown areas, recreational vehicles on properties or stored long-term and removal of abandoned junk; the group hope to improve Christmas Valley's aesthetic beauty and overall property value by changing the junkyard perception they feel many visitors have to the area when traveling down North Lake's main artery. While vacant lots filled with abandoned property is nothing new since Christmas Valley was first established in

The Fair, Are You Going?

The 97th Lake County Fair is September 1st-5th. I plan on making the trip down to Lakeview in support of the great 4-H and FFA members from across the county. Hundreds of project animals, and a multitude of 'static' projects (including LEGO) will be on display. There's always lots to see, and LOTS to eat at the fair, but I'm going to make sure and patronize the 4-H Food Booth. I hope you do too.

Run to the Desert Car Show Results and Thank You!

Hi friends and neighbors! With a total of 19 vehicles, the 3rd annual Run to the Desert Car Show was a great success, as we raised a significant amount of money for local charities.

Again a BIG thanks to John Flowerree for the great venue we have at the park. We had three great sponsors this year. Thank you to Troy Fine Trucking, Holiday Tree Farms, and North Lake Towing. Duane Jerald Overholser, April 20, 1948-August 1, 2016

From the time he came into this world on April 20, 1948 in Dallas, Oregon, nothing about Duane's life journey was normal. He had an easy sense of humor, cunning intelligence, penchant for puns, quick wit, and unquenchable curiosity. One never knew if a Tim Conway impersonation, a moving Elvis song, a 'groaner' joke, or a fascinating story of history and local lore from seemingly unending depth of knowledge would surface next.

He met his wife, Bonnie Jean Ross, on a blind date and promptly (but inadvertently) insulted her. He knew early on that she was the one and demonstrated the depths of his affection when he wore a hot pink shirt and rode his unicycle 4-miles into the neighboring town to court her. Apparently the tactic worked as they married on September 18, 1970 and enjoyed 45 years together. Once their three children were grown, they enjoyed frequent museum visits, constant growth through a plethora of books on all subjects, and trips to the Oregon beaches together. He loved his wife's deviled eggs, a good barbecue or fish and chips, and Arby's restaurants.

He attended a two-room schoolhouse through primary school and told others he was the worst student in his grade. As the only one in his grade, it was true. He later attended LaCreole Middle School and later Dallas High School where he immersed himself in music, drama and wrestling, graduating in 1966.

Duane earned a bachelor's degree in education and later a unique master degree in special education at what is now Western Oregon University that allowed him to teach any subject to any grade. He instructed students for a short time in Hermiston but finally settled in Sheridan, Oregon teaching special education, driver's education and drama. He adored working with kids, but moved on to odd jobs, photography and contracting after a few years when paperwork became more important to the schools than the kids.

He never lost his teacher's heart, however, and continued to share with and inspire everyone he encountered. Throughout the years he taught regular adult bible studies at multiple local churches, led troops of Royal Rangers and Boy Scout youths on unforgettable adventures, assisted with Bonnie's Camp Fire and Missionette groups, and even provided inspiration and mentoring to other patients at the cancer treatment center and hospital in his final months.

Duane was also a bit of a medical anomaly. He had his tonsils removed twice as a child when the first extraction grew back. He also endured the worst and longest bout of shingles doctors had ever seen. Diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in March of 2016, oncologists were baffled with his resilience and response to the disease. However, he succumbed unexpectedly to cancer complications on August 1, 2016 at the age of 68.

He has been reunited with mother Jannette (Lundquist) Overholser, father H. Dale Overholser, sister Diane (Overholser) Waldron, and brother Daryl Overholser in Heaven. Family waiting to see him again one day include wife, Bonnie, children Amy (John), Heidi (Sam), and Pete, a grandson, two step grandchildren, brothers Denys and David and sister Dixie.

A celebration of his life journey was held on Saturday, August 27, 2016 at the Free Methodist Church in Willamina, Oregon. In lieu of flowers, condolences, memorials and other tokens for the family can be left online at: <http://memorialwebsites.legacy.com/duaneoverholser>.

Editor's note: Duane's parents, Dale & Jan Overholser were long time residents of Christmas Valley and frequent contributors to DESERT WHISPERS.

Back in Thyme: Herb Walk Rescheduled

Linda McCoslin

Due to all the events of this month, we did not go on the herb walk. In addition, I discovered our planned destination of Diversion Reservoir is virtually impossible to get to without a four-wheel drive vehicle. So, for our next herb walk, on September 17, 2016, we are going to Ana Reservoir. There will be a potluck lunch. Bring your favorite munchies and utensils. There are lots of interesting things growing around the area to explore. Those of you who know where it is and have your own ride can meet us at the dock at 10:00 a.m. Those of you who do not have a ride can meet Pat and I at the Floweree Park at 9:00 a.m. and we will give rides there.

We are hoping to entice some of the people from Fort Rock, Summer Lake and Silver Lake to join us on this walk. It would be a pleasure to see some of you.

On a separate note, I was unable to go to the Pow Wow, but I did get to the Sagebrush Rock Festival, and I must tell you it was fantastic.

I went up on Thursday evening and quite a few campers were already there. Lots of children came and enjoyed the swim pool and the freedom to wander all they wanted without having to worry because everyone kept track of them.

There was a community kitchen set up with lots of donations of food and everyone took turns with the cook job which made it easier for everyone. I think we fed all who attended the event and in the mornings there was never ending coffee to start each day.

On Thursday evening a Star Wars movie was shown on the big screen which was on the lawn. It was exciting with surround sound because it made you feel like you were part of the movie. It was also a full moon and the effect was energetic and happy. Around noon on Friday we had people playing drums on stage to get the gang up and going for the evenings events. There were lots of out-of-towners as well as locals enjoying the whole affair.

The response to the bands was amazing. Lucky Savage was up first and gave some of their CDs to the crowd as well as sold a few. They did a great job of getting people going. Jake Cohara is fantastic with what he does with the instruments and his voice. Friends of Lenny were great, as usual, and got the people up and rocking and dancing. Druh Boy gives a very good message in his rap music if you listen to the words he is saying; they are so true. After the bands everyone joined the bonfire and had a wonderful drum circle started by Sean and Erick. Then some of the band members joined and other people who play instruments. The drumming went into the night and made it a pleasant way to end the evening, falling asleep to a great sound.

Saturday morning there was a non-stop pot of coffee as well as biscuits and gravy by the ton—to get the day started right. Again, noon started with a few drums. On Saturday afternoon there was a run to watch, a volleyball game going on and a lot of adults enjoying the pool as well as the fantastic shower. The shower was hand built around a tree with a shower-head in the tree, hot and cold water, building and curtains around it. It was awesome.

When the bands started Strive Roots got on stage and did a wonderful job. There were lots of dancers and then back to the drum circle for the nights ending.

Sunday morning, to start winding down, Michael Stettler and Rondo got on stage for a political talk on how the people deserve better and to get more signatures for Stettler to get on the ballot. They introduced me as the originator of the festival, and embarrassed me by putting me on the microphone, but that's ok.

This whole event was fantastic. It amazes me how people from all walks of life can spend a weekend together and get along in a peaceful, calming, friendly way as they enjoy the events and get to know each other. I felt this was the best fest yet. I am sorry if you missed it. It was worth going to. God Bless You All!

1962, some permanent residents have gone as far as purchasing adjacent empty lots to their property just to keep unsightly debris away from their primary residence.

"They need to come up and see this, the Commissioners are in charge," added Shumway. "They are our mayor and city council, any issues we have they are responsible for."

Lake County's current nuisance ordinance, established in 1999, includes a complaint procedure against landowners who fail to properly maintain their property regarding accumulation of junk, debris and vehicles, pollution, weeds in excess of 10 inches, loud noise, piling of lumber and machinery, pollution and more. Once a nuisance complaint is filed and an action determined by Lake County, the nuisance must be removed or abated within 10 days of receipt of notice or appealed, otherwise the nuisance is to be removed or abated by the county and a lien placed on the property.

However, despite strict rules established, finding both the budget and personnel in which to accomplish enforcement of rules violations and removal of debris if landowners do not comply is another matter. In the same regard that dogs are often left to roam free in community streets across Lake County by pet owners willfully ignoring rules because there is no budget for a dogcatcher, a cultural apathy has contributed to the problem with some residents seeing no need to clean up trash or abide by code when there is no repercussion. Further, many lots have been either abandoned outright or are utilized as long-term storage by lot property owners who do not reside in Christmas Valley, creating a gray area for responsibility of upkeep if there are squatters illegally using a lot.

Much of the procedural process for addressing complaints falls to the Lake County Planning Department and Planning Director Darwin Johnson, who recognizes the ongoing issues and suggested citizens file complaints as necessary so the department can begin proceedings to address each on a case-by-case basis.

"We acknowledge that there are concerned citizens with every right to have the county enforce current laws and make a complaint," said Johnson. "The county has a procedure for both land use violations and nuisance complaints, we will file notices if they are ignored which could elevate to a possible fine. We treat every code violation and nuisance complaint the same in Christmas Valley as everywhere else, and forms are available to access on the County website. We are aware of code violations and will address them when a proper complaint is filed. I'm not going to avoid processing a complaint, but it needs to be complete."

For forms, applications and current zoning and nuisance complaint rules visit: www.lakecountyor.org/government/land_use_planning.php or call 541-947-6036.

Withers Fire near Paisley, 100% Contained

SCOFMP

As of August 27, 2016 the Withers Fire near Paisley, Oregon is 100% contained. Most of the firefighting resources have been released to their home units or been assigned to other fires and life is returning to normal for the residents of Paisley.

Local firefighters with the South Central Oregon Fire Management Partnership (SCOFMP) will monitor the area in coming weeks and it is likely there will be visible smoke within the perimeter until there is significant precipitation. All closure orders and evacuations have been lifted.

The fire, which started August 17, ended up being 3,424 acres. Approximately 20 percent of the fire was on private land, with the remainder on Bureau of Land Management, Lakeview District lands.

At its peak there were more than 330 people dedicated to suppression efforts and a local Type 3 Incident Management Team was in place with a regional Type 2 Team prepared to take command if needed.

"We are happy that through the hard work and dedication of the firefighters and personnel on this incident that it was possible to contain the Withers Fire without the loss of any structures fairly quickly in weather and fuel conditions which generally lead to rapid spread," said Interagency Fire Staff Officer Barry Shulanberger. "Most importantly, we appreciate the community of Paisley for their patience, cooperation and support as the firefighters and Incident Management Teams worked in and around the town."

"The juniper fuel reduction work in the area was a tremendous help to firefighters protecting the town of Paisley and also reduced some of the intensity of the fire,"

said BLM Lakeview Resource Area Field Manager Todd Forbes. "Now the important work starts to repair the damage from the fire and continue to protect the community of Paisley and the Chewaucan River by reducing the risk of erosion and landslides and restoring overall health to the landscape."

BLM staff are working towards restoration in the area, including repairing fences damaged during fire suppression operations, restoring dozer lines, and resource specialists are conducting an Ecological Stabilization and Rehabilitation assessment to make recommendations for restoration of grasses, shrubs, erosion control and other long-term recovery work.

The cause of the Withers Fire continues to be under investigation. Anyone with information is asked to call 541-947-2504.

Fire danger in the area remains extreme and visitors are asked to be aware of their surroundings and to be prepared for changing conditions. This includes reporting visible smoke that could be from a wildfire.

To report a fire, please call 911.

In addition, many parts of the SCOFMP area continue to regularly be under red flag warnings and fire weather watches with low relative humidity and strong winds, increasing the risk of wildfire – not only from lightning, but also human causes. The agencies ask that the public be careful with anything that can throw a spark while out on federal or state public lands.

CLUB

Club members Nik Shumway, Michael Sumway, Garrett Joye, Hayden Joye, and Scott Wagner acting a little GOOFY at the last regular club meeting of 2016.

Club Surpasses 20 Feet!

Months ago, when the North Lake County 4-H Lego Club started on their ambitious project of a 20 foot tall tower, some doubted it could be done. Granted, at that time the group only had enough Lego pieces to reach a height of seven or eight feet. But through generous donations from the community, a label redemption fund-raiser, a financial grant from the Lake County 4-H Association, and a large loan of pieces from a private collection, the team DID IT!

42,322 pieces are assembled in a tower 20 feet, 3 ⁷/₈ inches tall. The tower is in 8 sections, which enables it to be taken to the 2016 Lake County Fair for display. Lego Club members invite you to the fair to see their handy-work.

The North Lake 4-H Lego Club will start back up in January. Get signed up for 4-H and be part of the team!

We know your business makes our business.
We'll take the time to get to know you, find a loan that's the perfect fit, and provide outstanding customer service to boot.
