

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Ira and Sissy Crisp moved to Fort Rock from Woodburn in November 1980. Ira had worked for Safeway in Portland until the company wanted to transfer him to Oakland. It was then they made the final decision to do what they had always wanted to do ----move to Fort Rock. The Crisps bought the Fort Rock General Store.

Ira and Sissy have two sons. One is married and the other is out on his own.

The Fort Rock General Store is open from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. Monday through Saturday. Besides offering groceries, gas, beer and cold pop, they also feature Shamrock Feed at competitive prices.

Running for those seats are Carl Coonce, Margaret Spry, Martha Johnson, Jerry Daugherty, Nelda Stone, Steve Inglesby and Nancy Burns. Four seats are up for election for the Christmas Valley Domestic Water District Board. Candidates for those positions are Leonard Christensen, Norman Cherry, Fred Hennigan, Earnie Brown and James Burns.

The Polls will open from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. Only those registered voters residing in the respective districts are eligible to vote.

NEW RESIDENTS

Anna Marie Shaver, daughter of Wes and Linda Shaver, was born March 28, 1981. The 6 lb. 13 oz. baby joins Allen and Sara in the Shaver home

Another new arrival in Christmas Valley is Jennifer Miller. She was born April 3. She joins a brother Jimmy, who is eight and a sister Vonnie who is 5. The proud grandparents are Carolyn and Gilbert Crowson. Carol Miller and her children have recently moved here from Prineville.

FARMER'S CO-OP MEETING

A meeting was held at the Christmas Valley Community Hall on March 30 to determine interest in developing a Farmers' Co-operative in the area. A five member committee, composed of George Brown, Chuck Nofziger, Terry Nofziger, Bob Nordyke and Art Stewart, had been working on the feasibility and costs. The Co-op, if created, would supply farm services such as grain storage, scales, grain and hay sales, fertilizer, feed and supplies such as twine, wire and fencing.

Dave Nofziger of Far West, a co-operative in Lebanon, Oregon conducted the meeting. He emphasized that no co-op should exist unless there is a definite need in the community for its supplies and services. He described how the co-op could be profitable, how it could help each member and what the members could expect it to cost. He stated that the success of a co-op hinged on the members and the co-op meeting their obligations to each other.

The next meeting was scheduled for April 29 at 7 P.M. in the Community Hall.

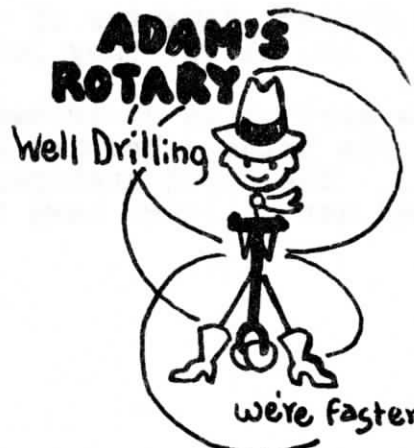

BOOSTERS

The Christmas Valley Boosters wish to thank everyone who supported the Easter Egg Hunt. Valley Foods and the Trail donated many dozens of eggs and the Lioness Club helped decorate them. The Boosters wish to give special thanks to the Trail, Valley Foods and the Lioness Club for their help and support.

The bake sale and recent spaghetti feed were successful events, according to Booster President Sue Johnson. The bake sale netted $66 and the spaghetti feed earned $53. The proceeds were for the Easter Hunt and any remaining proceeds will be used for the Fourth of July strawberry feed.

LAKE FISHING

Some pretty good catches of nice fish have been taken from the lake in the last few days. Since there seems to be a little confusion about the price of tickets, it is hoped the following information will help clear up the matter.

The fishing fees for the lake are $10 for a 30 day permit or $2 for a daily permit. The limit is three fish per day, according to Park and Recreation Secretary Ilena Furman.

NORTH LAKE DEPUTY SHERIFF

Don Burwell, the North Lake County Deputy Sheriff, was raised in Prospect, Oregon. Don joined the Marine Corp just after the Korean War. When his service time was completed, he moved to Montana. He worked at various jobs before being employed by the Montana State Prison System.

Don was a city policeman at Dillon, Mt. and served as chief deputy in Burns, Oregon before moving to Silver Lake to become the north end deputy.

Don and his wife, Chris, enjoy hunting, fishing and bowling. Of six children, Twelve year old Roger is the only one at home.

Alcohol is the main problem in the area for both adults and children, Don Believes. Added to that is the fact the kids have few things to do.

Children driving without a license is also a problem, Don said. Drivers Manuals can be obtained from Don by calling him at 576-2535. A student driver permit can be issued for those age 14 through 16 who need to drive to the school bus.

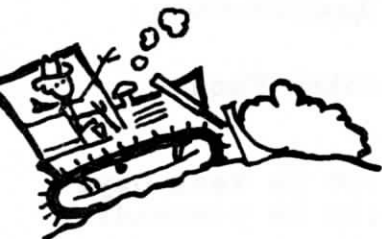

Motorcycles need to be kept off roads open to the public. Areas to ride in are fenced in ranch property and the dunes area that isn't closed to motor vehicles. A motorcycle endorsement is necessary on the driver's license to legally be able to ride a cycle. Helmets are also required under the age of eighteen.

Don stated "people are not used to having a populated area. But due to the fact that Christmas Valley is getting populated, kids driving motor vehicles without a license are putting a liability upon the parents that could cost the parents whatever they may own.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Don and Roxanne Hashbarger celebrated their first wedding anniversary on April 19, 1981.

LOCAL PAIR WED

Rhoda Breeding became Mrs. Ross Holmes on March 25, 1981 at the courthouse in Winnemucca, Nv. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace.

The employees of the Christmas Valley Lodge, where Rhoda cooks, gave the couple a surprise reception the following evening. John Lushenko baked a three tiered wedding cake. Lea Lushenko decorated it with pink roses and a miniature bride and bridegroom on the top.

The couple is now at home in Christmas Valley.

Sue Ferguson of Salem, owner of the Cinderella School of Self-Improvement and Models Agency is willing to come to Christmas Valley for a one day session, according to Janet Overholser a former student.

Ms. Ferguson teaches personality development, communication, protocol, and figure analysis. She helps students learn their body types, structure, their assets and liabilities and what to do with them.

She would be bringing along her closed circuit TV camera to take pictures of the students as they sit, stand and walk. The films would be shown on her TV set so the students could see themselves as others see them.

Ms. Ferguson would give a six hour class if 12 people are interested. The charge for the class would be $15 per student. Anyone wishing more information may contact Janet at 576-2530 or Jean Cook at 576-2632.

The date of the Christmas Valley Horse Show has been changed to June 6, 1981, according to Sue Johnson. The show, which is sponsored by the Lions Club, will be judged by Doyle Stanfill of Terrebonne.

Ruth Lucas is secretary for the one day show. She is assisted by Lea Lushenko.

There are to be clean up days at the rodeo grounds. Red Johnson, Iris Hildebran or Sue Johnson may be contacted about the clean up dates. Signs will be put up also to let volunteers know. Anyone needing manure for their gardens can come and get it on work days.

If any business or private individual would like to sponsor a class, the cost is only $5 a class. Hi Desert Quarter Horse of Christmas Valley will start it off by sponsoring the showmanship class for ages 14 and up.
