

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

In the near future, the Coonce Family will open an entertainment center in Christmas Valley. The center will include two pool tables, one foos table and one ping pong table. There will be several electronic games including a rally machine, a safari machine and a baseball machine. Eventually a juke box and pin ball machine are to be added.

Soft drinks, sandwiches and pizza will be available. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed on the premises!! The center is located one-half mile west of the west cattle guard.

Carl and Liz Coonce have been in Oregon off and on for the past 20 years, mainly in the Grants Pass area. The Coonce's came to Christmas Valley from Ukiah, California. They heard about Christmas Valley from an advertisement on the television. Carl came up alone to look the area over. He did just that and put down a deposit on his present land site. Then he went home to tell Liz what he had done. Liz states she loved the area from the minute she saw it.

After they moved here, their daughter Carla suggested the center from talking with the local kids. The Coonce Family could see the need for a place for the young people.

Carl has been working in the dry wall business since he was 16. He came here mainly to retire from "Coonce Dry Wall". Although Carla suggested having the center for the children, she won't be here much to see it operate. She is going away to Lane Community College this year.

TUPPERWARE

Liz Coonce is the new Tupperware dealer in the valley. She sold Tupperware for several years before coming to Christmas Valley. She was a Tupperware manager for four years in California.

The newest prize for having a party that earns $155 and two bookings is a crock pot, according to Liz.

Call Liz anytime at 576-2681 to book a party or to "talk Tupperware".

SHAKLEE

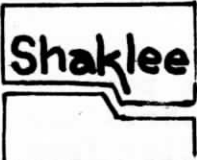

Patch and Ava Parker became interested in Shaklee products because several of their friends used them. After trying the products, they discovered they liked them, also.

Shaklee products include food supplements, cleaning products and personal care items. The food supplements include vitamins, minerals and instant protein. The cleaning products are 100% biodegradable and the personal care products are all made from fruits and vegetables. All the ingredients are 100% natural.

The Shaklee office is located next to the Trail Tavern, where KB Communications was located. Ava's hours are 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday. On Thursday evenings, Ava has a nutritional meeting. Everyone is welcome to attend!! There is no charge. Facials are offered the afternoons that Ava is open. Saturdays and Sundays Ava can be reached at 576-2345 or 576-2313.

Shaklee products were introduced in 1915 by Dr. Shaklee. In 1956, the products went public. The business is headquartered in San Francisco and now totals 280 million dollars a year in nation wide sales. Shaklee is a business opportunity for anyone wanting to earn extra money or to be self-employed, Ava said.

Bob will also have a tire and maintenance center including alignment and balancing. Used steel and lumber will also be offered. Another feature of the business will be delivery of parts to his account customers within a 15 mile radius. He will also repair tires in the field with his service truck.

CHRISTMAS VALLEY BOARDS

CHRISTMAS VALLEY PARK AND RECREATION

At the September 10 meeting, Mrs. Helen Christensen offered to run the Pro Shop at the golf course and collect fees. The fees are the same as last year.

Sharon Cline reported that Mrs. Jan Overholser had contacted three library supply houses and she had a list of things needed to start the library. The list and prices were given to the Board for their consideration. E. G. Farm and Feed made a $50 donation to the Board for library use. Park and Recreation donated another $100.00 making a total of $250.00 to begin the library.

Red Johnson reported there would be a play day at the rodeo grounds on Sunday, Sept. 20. He asked for authority to keep motorcycles and bicycles out of the rodeo grounds during the Play Day.

It was decided that Gerry Malchow will start working on the announcers stand at the rodeo grounds. Board members indicated a desire to use the income from the facility to make the needed repairs.

CHRISTMAS VALLEY FIRE DEPT. OPERATING LEVY

The Fire Department operating levy of $22,150.00 was passed by the patrons of the Christmas Valley Fire Department at the Tuesday, Sept. 15 election. The final tally was 25 yea votes and 7 nay votes.

This was a single year operating levy for the 1981-82 fiscal year. Unless the Fire Department wishes to have a levy vote each year, it will have to have a tax base election next spring, according to Assessor Gary Partin.

PRO SHOP OPEN

Players at the Christmas Valley Golf Course will now find the Pro Shop at the course open.

After being closed for some time, the Christmas Valley Parks and Recreation Commission decided to open the pro shop to collect players fees during the balance of the season until October 31. The board has hired Kenneth Christensen, a new comer to the area, to maintain the course. His wife, Helen, has volunteered to assist by serving the players at the pro shop in collection of charges and information on the facilities available in and around the golf course.

The Christensens, who recently purchased some property here, are from Los Banos, California. They plan to spend the spring and summer seasons here, while continuing to live in Los Banos, where they are both employed, during the winter.

He is an ardent golfer and understands what is needed to keep a course in good shape for interesting playing. She has been involved in public relations work as a news reporter and will try to bring in outside players for special events at the golf course from time to time.

The course is open every day and everyone is invited to come over, get involved in a game that has thousands of followers, or just drop in at the pro shop and get acquainted with Ken and Helen Christensen.
