

COMMUNITY OF CHRISTMAS VALLEY RELIEVED AS FIRST DAY OF ISSUE PASSES

The tiny community of Christmas Valley is still reeling from the efforts of so many for the First Day of Issue Event, October 28th. The 29th of October felt like the 26th of December! So much work went into preparation for the previous day, it was hard to believe it was over and gone so quickly! WHEW!!!

Of course, for some, the event is still happening. Besides the 8 or so people hired to handle the monumental load of 1st. day of issue mail orders, the C.V. Boosters are still filling cachet orders. The Lions have sent in another T-shirt order so they can continue to fill requests. C.V. Park & Rec. still have bumper stickers and are still sending out copies of the special issue of the Desert Whispers. These community fund raising projects seem to have been successful. WHEW, again!!!

NEWS RELEASES AND INSTRUCTION FROM FRANK THOMAS BEGIN FIRST DAY ISSUE PLANS

It all started last summer when some news releases announced that Christmas Valley would be the site of the First Day of Issue of the 1981 contemporary Christmas stamp. Some of the community saw it on TV. Some learned of it thru newspapers.

Frank Thomas, U.S. Postal Service, Washington D.C. met with a group of interested people on July 30 to explain what having a first day issue stamp cancellation would mean to the community. He gave specific instructions on who should receive the albums and how to go about inviting guests to the ceremony on October 28. He advised that proceeds from all projects should go to the benefit of the community. He suggested we make up our own cachet, a word unknown to most of us at that time.

Committees were formed, meetings were set up and projects were decided on as the community prepared for the event that would bring Christmas Valley worldwide philatelic recognition.

MOST OF COMMUNITY GET INVOLVED WITH FIRST DAY OF ISSUE OCCASION

Reporters came and went from all over, but they didn't begin to touch the stories that were unfolding around town. They caught the main drift, our town being the site of the First Day of Issue of the 1981 contemporary Christmas stamp. They couldn't possibly catch every story about the hours, weeks, months so many donated to try to make the event a success!

Maybe fame will be fleeting for Christmas Valley, but we doubt the pride we so evidently share in it, will fade quickly.

A HUGE WHISPERS' RABBIT HUG OF THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING COMMITTEE PEOPLE:

First and foremost, a special thank you goes to Sharon Cline, COORDINATING CHAIRMAN. No one but we residents could appreciate the magnitude of the job of keeping we "Desert Rats and Cowboys" organized for months!

Whether the following committee people spent months or hours on their projects, we are still very proud of them:

ALBUM AND GUEST LIST (among a myriad of other things she accomplished):
Betty Turnbow.

ADVERTISING AND TRAVELING: Joyce Gallier, Norma Guthridge, Mae Nordyke, Rollie Smith, Carl Coonce, Walter Foote and Iris Hildebran.

BUMPER STICKERS: Carol Grassman with help from following:

CACHET: Carol Grassman, Julie Malchow, Earl McMillen, Nita Richards and Loretta Stewart, who designed the envelope.

DECORATIONS: Russell Branchley, Sharon Cline, Carol Grassman, Jerry Hildebran, Lea Lushenko and Bud Maple.

DESERT WHISPERS: Lois Branchley, Sharon Cline, Ilena Furman, Sue Johnson, Margaret Spry and Loretta Stewart.

LOUD SPEAKERS: Jerry Hildebran and Bud Maple.

PARKING: Stephen Branchley, Bud Maple, Bill Rowell, Tom Scurlock, and Lloyd Spry.

FIRST DAY OF ISSUE, CHRISTMAS VALLEY SIGN FOR THE COMMUNITY HALL: Gerry Malchow.

T-SHIRTS: Fred Johnson, Martha Johnson, Dodie Robey, Jeanne Robey, and Rollie Smith.

Special thanks go to the organizations who sponsored the following projects: C.V. BOOSTER CLUB, the cachets, C.V. PARK & REC., the bumper stickers and Desert Whispers, & THE LION'S CLUB, the T-shirts.*

ANNOUNCEMENT: By popular demand, a new supply of Christmas Stamp T-shirts, including children's sizes has been ordered. Shipment should arrive by mid-November in time for Christmas giving. PHONE: Hi-Desert Bldg. Supply, 576-2582 or Desert Inn Motel, 576-2262 for location to purchase.

GUARDS: So many people in the community volunteered to stay overnight to guard the community hall, it might take a page to list them. A special thank you to each and every one of them.

and lastly we want to thank little Freddie Thomas who sat next to his mom, Kitty, the whole day of the 28th and ALMOST kept still the entire time! Kitty, along with the following people had been hired by the post office to help take care of the tremendous load of cancellation orders: Russell Branchley, Sharon Cline, Teresa Lane, Earl McMillen, Elaine Potter and Terry Weikel.

BUSINESS BOOMING FOR BOOSTERS ON BUSY DAY

The following Booster members helped on the 28th and many more are still filling cachet orders: Carmen Bishop, Marge Bohall, Lois Branchley, Sharon Cline, Carla Coonce, Liz Coonce, Joyce Gallier, Angie Gonzalez, Emma Hennagin, Sue Johnson, Lea Lushenko, Margaret Spry, Loretta Stewart and Elsie Uyttebroeck.*

*Note from Boosters: "Thanks to all the Boosters that helped on the 28th. If we missed your name, we are sorry, but thanks anyway!"

DITTO GOES FOR PEOPLE WHO HELPED ON ALL COMMITTEES AND PROJECTS

Do you think today's kids are nothing but trouble makers? Perhaps that's because you don't hear enough about the good things they do. Let us tell you about some Christmas Valley kids.

For two Saturdays previous to October 28, youngsters in a clean up crew, supervised by Betty Turnbow, "cleaned up" the town! Picking up debris and clearing weeds from around public buildings and driveways, the kids managed to collect seven large pickup loads of litter in the two days!

We think the community should be very, very proud of Betty's helpers: Annette and Claude Blackman, Chuck and Theresa Bunnell, Darin Dutcher, Stan Fox, Doug Hyde, Lonnie McEwen, Dusty Stone and Ronald and Donald Yancy!

STAMP COMMITTEE MEMBERS CHOOSE INVITED GUESTS

How were those invited to the ceremony chosen? Each member of the stamp committees were allowed two requests for invitations. Two hundred ten invitations were sent out.

WEATHER COULD HAVE BEEN BETTER, BUT THEN, IT COULD HAVE BEEN MUCH, MUCH WORSE

With predictions of snow in the higher altitudes and over the passes, many fingers were crossed in thought, at least, as the morning of the 28th unfolded. The sun shone briefly early on, but as the ceremony approached, the usual Christmas Valley wind chill factor became apparent and sleet threatened. Although it probably wasn't obvious to non-natives, the weather was fairly kind and held off most of it's downpour until after the ceremony. Our sincere apologies to our frozen visitors!

FIRST DAY ISSUE CEREMONY STARTS ON SCHEDULE

With rain threatening, the First Day of Issue Ceremony started on schedule 11 A.M., October 28, 1961.

Rollie Smith, Postmaster of the Silver Lake Post Office, presided over the observance. His Boy Scout Troop # 88 of Silver Lake presented the colors.

With those present joining her, Christmas Valley vocalist, Duella Adams sang the National Anthem as Phil Wagner accompanied her on the piano.

The invocation was offered by Sharon Cline.

Long time resident Earl McMillen gave the welcoming address.

Former resident Anna Linebaugh shared some delightful memories of Christmases experienced in the Christmas Valley area.

Duella, with Phil accompanying, offered a spiritual song.

Neva Warner who had been Postmistress at Silver Lake for 42 years was introduced as was Juanita Richards, clerk in charge of the Christmas Valley substation.

Al Bradford, Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster from Eugene, Oregon introduced the principal Speaker, Michael S. Coughlin, Regional Postmaster General. Mr Coughlin of San Francisco gave a presentation with a Christmas theme and told of the origin of the "Teddy Bear" Christmas stamp designed by Naied Einsel of Westport, Connecticut.

Mr. Coughlin also presented the above participants in the program with U.S. Postal Service Albums bearing their names in gold on the cover and containing a sheet of "Teddy Bear" stamps. He also presented an album to a surprise recipient, Loretta Stewart, resident and Christmas Valley's cachet design donor.

Sharon Cline closed the ceremony with the Benediction.

Zelma Foote, Master of the Fort Rock Grange, was presented with an album for the Grange.

Later, at a luncheon for ceremony participants and album recipients, the following received additional albums: Fred Johnson, accepting for the Christmas Valley Park & Recreation District, Elizabeth Bueler, accepting for the Oregon Historical Society, Verna Price, accepting for the Lakeview Library and Iris Hildebran, owner, operator of the Christmas Valley Lodge.

A CHAIR, A CHAIR, MY KINGDOM FOR A CHAIR

Would you guess that one of the big problems in having a 1st day of issue ceremony at Christmas Valley would be getting enough chairs to seat everyone? Think about it. How many chairs could there be in the Christmas Valley area?

Again, Betty Turnbow went to work and enlisted donors for the thousand or so chairs needed for the ceremony. They came from: the Christmas Valley Community Church, who, in addition to the chairs, allowed the use of the piano and podium. Patty Effingham, Town & Country Bookkeeping, the Masons, North Lake County School Dist. #14, The Seventh Day Adventist Church and the Summer Lake Church.

And how did the chairs get in place for the ceremony? Volunteers were: Luke, Lyle, Stan and Tim Adams, Joe and Marge Bohall, Steve and Russell Branch-ley, Ernie Brown, Kathy Buerman, 8th grade boys from Silver Lake, Bud Maple, Max Mays, Bill Remy, Mary Lou Rosebrook, Bill Rowell, Tom Scurlock, Chuck Selby, Carl Shumway, members of the Silver Lake USFS and 9 boy scouts from Silver Lake that also presented colors for the ceremony: Calvin Dark, Daren & Drew Dutcher, Mike and Jerry Horn, Chuck Horton, Brad Oxenford, Garen Smith and Kenny Threet.

CHRISTMAS MICHIGAN, SITE OF 1980 1ST DAY OF ISSUE, HEARD FROM

"We received a colorful brochure about Christmas Michigan with a Desert Whispers order," reports Ilene Furman. It described Christmas as a small community on the south shore of Lake Superior. A note from the sender, Paul Erickson said, "I have lived in Christmas, Michigan for 26 years, work in the Munising Post Office, and worked on the 1966 and 1980 Christmas Stamp Dedications". Oh! Oh! They had it twice!

MOMENTOS FROM CHRISTMAS VALLEY'S BEGINNINGS DISPLAYED IN TRAIL RESTAURANT

Photos and copies of the newspaper, THE CHRISTMAS VALLEY GAZETTE, distributed when Penn Phillips was first developing the townsite and surrounding acreages, are arranged in an exhibit still up in the Trail Restaurant. There is also a display noting that this is Christmas Valley's 20th anniversary.

We hope you see this interesting exhibit and take special note of the professional cartoon depicting the residents of 1962. Even then, a rabbit was used to emphasis the local humor!

Betty Morehouse and Shirley Blackman had a show on the 28th in the Shaklee offices next door to the Trail. They displayed many of the varied Indian artifacts they had collected, mostly from the local area.

CACHET REQUESTS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

No, it wasn't "Dear Abby" but as letters poured in from Germany, Texas, New York, Florida and many points in between it couldn't have been more interesting had it been "Dear Abby".

We were wished a "Happy Day from Germany" and an Ex-POW from New York apologized for sending cash, remarking "cash was made before checks". A New Jersey letter requested "take me to your leader". Sister Moglia of St. Joseph's Novitiate New York, must have sent a prayer along with her money in cash - both were accepted gratefully.

POTLUCK FOR SURVIVORS, AMONGST THOSE THAT HELPED WITH 1ST DAY ISSUE, PLANNED

Potluck for survivors was scheduled for November 15 but as this paper was compiled, the news came that the Postal Service may not be finished with the building then.

Perhaps it would be fitting to schedule it the following Sunday the 22nd, the weekend before Thanksgiving. We are all thankful we survived!

Watch all the bulletin spots for final date and specifics. Please bring your own table service, a dish or two, a good appetite and a rested celebration mood!

TV AND NEWSPAPER REPORTERS TURN OUT FOR DAY

Newspaper reporters that were on hand for the day's festivities were; Hal Brayton. General Manager of the Lake County Examiner, Dave Cash of the Bend Bulletin, Lee Juillerat, Herald and News of Klamath Falls and Martha Stranghan of Redmond. We are all acquainted with her feature articles in the Ruralite.

We all had plenty of opportunity to get our "wave and Hi Mom" in, as the TV cameras from Bend, Klamath Falls, Medford and Portland descended upon our community of Christmas Valley and its first day issue of stamp. Most familiar was our own (and Medford's) Hank Henry. Wonder what he thought of his view from here.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The November 2, 1981 Special Meeting of the Christmas Valley Rural Fire Protection District Board of Directors was not held due to lack of a quorum. The bids to refinish the woodwork on the exterior of the fire hall will be opened at the regular meeting of the board on Monday, November 16, 1981 at the fire hall.

The board members of the North Lake County Emergency Medical Services are planning to attend the next meeting of the fire department to discuss insurance on the ambulance housed at the Christmas Valley Fire Hall.

PARK & REC.

Ole Turnbow stated that the Christmas Valley Water District will put water lines to the aircraft tie down area of the airstrip at no cost to the recreation district.

Since the community hall is desperately in need of chairs, the $ 00.00 approved for this purpose several years ago was again allocated.

Applications for a new board member to replace Frank Galvano, who has resigned, are now being accepted by the board.

COMMUNITY CELEBRATES HALLOWEEN

Amidst the clamor and excitement of the Christmas Stamp activities Halloween did not pass quietly. Julie Malchow planned and held a very successful party at the 3C's Arcade on Friday October 30.

The event was sponsored by the Christmas Valley Boosters and attended by about 100 local youngsters. A haunted house was erected and manned by local volunteers and enjoyed by many young (and not-so-young) holiday pranksters.

Fourteen of the Trick-or-Treaters were judged winners in the contest. Donors for the contest were: Champion Chevron, Christmas Valley Irrigation, High Desert Construction, Christmas Valley Realty, Desert Inn Motel, High Desert Building Supply, Pettus Realty, Goeres Grocery, and especially Valley Foods.

Many citizens volunteered time and bodies on very short notice to make this an enjoyable community project.

Sincere thanks to all who helped make this a "Christmas Valley Event".

BAKER AND STOUT UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Katrinia Rachel Smith Baker became the bride of Melvin Richard Stout Jr. on September 25, 1981 at 8:30 P.M. in the Christmas Valley Community Hall.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, James L. Mulder of Broadbent, Oregon. The Rev. Margaret Kelley performed the single ring ceremony. The Rev. Dick Kelley gave the wedding prayer. The bride wore a white victorian gown with a long train. Her bridal bouguet was a cascade of Fall flowers.

The bridegroom is the son of Mel and Peggy Stout, who are relative newcomers to Christmas Valley. Melvin served in the U.S. Navy as a jet mechanic and just recently received his honorable discharge and moved to Christmas Valley with his parents.

Sid Stringer of Scio was best man and Loni Carr of Central Point was Maid of Honor. Anne and Sally Kelley, daughters of the Rev. Kelley's were the flower girls. Russell and Stephen Branchley were the ushers.

The cake and flower arrangements were made by Peggy Stout, mother of the bridegroom.

Out of town guests were the bridegroom's great grandmother, Dell Mae Phillbrook of Grants Pass, his grandmother, Vay Batchlor of Portland, Francis Osorio of Portland, Dellma Kortt and children of Central Point, great aunt and uncle Bea and John Morgan of Gresham and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Stout of Reedsport.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Stout will make their home in Christmas Valley after a honeymoon trip to the coast.
