Lake County Public Transit Operated by Lake County Senior Citizens Association

Christmas Valley to LaPine Shopping Shuttles are scheduled for the 1st and the 3rd Wednesdays every month.

Bend Trips are scheduled on an as needed basis.

We are currently assessing the need for a medical shuttle to Chiloquin and would like to hear from anyone interested in this service.

Lake County Senior Center Transportation is operating under Oregon Phase 1 Reopening rules, to keep Lake County protected from the coronavirus and from re-closure. Drivers are disinfecting vehicles between every trip, and keeping the recommended 6 foot distance between drivers and each family of riders. As Oregon is mandating that all Public Transit drivers wear face coverings on the job, we are also asking that all riders wear face coverings in our vehicles, for the safety of our drivers and other riders. If you do not have a face covering, one will be provided for you by the driver. If you have any questions about scheduling rides, or about policies, please call Anne at Transportation 541-947-4966 ext. 106.

Per OHA and ODOT requirements, passengers are required to wear masks or cloth face coverings. A bandana will do.

If you have OHP, please call GOBHI Ride Share at 877-875-4657 for non-emergency medical transport.

Wishing on a Shooting Star

In this case, a comet called NEOWISE.

The comet's full name is Comet C/2020 F3 NEOWISE. It gets its name from the NASA mission that discovered it on March 27, 2020, called Near-Earth Object Wide-field Infrared Survey Explorer or NEOWISE. The mission consists of a spacecraft in orbit around the Earth and an investigative team at the University of Arizona that are tasked with cataloging as many asteroids near Earth as possible, especially any that might be a potential threat to Earth.

When the team behind the NEOWISE mission first observed this object with a distinctly fuzzy tail, they knew that they had found something very special. They knew it was not an asteroid since they are typically pretty rocky in nature and appear like big chunks of dry rock. Comets are more often a mixture of rock and ice. Their composition is more water, carbon dioxide, ammonia, and the like, so it is no wonder that as this three-mile-in-diameter comet closely orbits the sun and the ice heats up, turning it to gas that envelopes it, that we are able to see the fuzzy tail and witness a spectacular celestial fireworks display from Earth.

If you reside in Lake County, you are blessed to have a wonderful view of the comet now in the night sky just north of the Big Dipper about an hour or so after sunset. A few weeks ago it was more easily observed in the early dawn hours, and a few astrophotographers took advantage of the brilliant display capturing once-in-a-lifetime images for us all to enjoy. One such photographer is Lester Tsai.

Lester Tsai's passion for photography led him to seek the perfect spot for the perfect shot. This was high on a cliff in the Mt. Hood National Forest looking out towards Mt. Hood. An avid backpacker, he and a friend climbed to a "secret spot" carrying 40 lbs. of camera gear. Once there, he set up one of his cameras to shoot time-lapse and then positioned his main camera. He had strategically researched the direction of the path of the comet, and the time the comet would appear. He was all set for a showtime of 2 a.m. 2 a.m. came and went. Lester says, "as the time neared 3 a.m. I began to get a little worried. Had I planned this wrong? What was going on?" Then his friend exclaimed, "There it is! To the left!" It had come up further north than expected. After some quick adjustments in direction of the cameras and other technicalities, Lester Tsai captured the comet for all time in the most stunningly beautiful photographs that will be shared for generations to come. His passion and patience preserved a true testament to what an amazing life we share here on Earth.

If you haven't already done so, go out on a clear night and look for NEOWISE and witness this once-in-a-lifetime event. If you have binoculars or a telescope, you will definitely have an advantage in seeing it. If you miss it, don't worry; the path that NEOWISE takes around the Sun takes nearly 7,000 years to complete, so you will see it again in 6,800 years!

To order prints of Lester Tsai's NEOWISE photographs, visit his website: www.tsaiphotography.com

Chocolate Tree: Theobroma Cacao L., Sterculia
Family (Sterculiaceae)

"Food of the Gods" is the literal and apt translation of the name Theobroma. It was given to the Chocolate Tree and its genus by the great botanist Carolus Linnaeus, creator of the modern system of scientific nomenclature. The name reflects not only the flavor of chocolate, but its history as well.

In 1519, the Spanish explorer Hernando Cortez and his soldiers witnessed a strange ceremony at the court of the Aztec emperor Montezuma seated high on a Golden throne, observed by his subjects with reverent awe, the "living God" repeatedly drank from a golden goblet containing a beverage called chocolatl. When the Indians honored the Spanish by offering them the bitter dark brown drink, they explained that the beans from which it was made had come from paradise, and so each sip would bring wisdom and knowledge. So valuable were the beans to the Aztecs that they served as a form of currency: 1 bean could buy a wild turkey; 100 could buy a live slave.

Cortez praised chocolate effusively in a letter to the Spanish ruler, Charles V, and brought a supply of the beans home with him. Enthusiasm for the new drink, made more palatable by the addition of sugar and vanilla (an improvement said to have been made about 1550 by the nuns of a Mexican cloister spread to the French court. There it was considered an aphrodisiac and happily imbibed by those who could afford it. The English added milk to the formula and established chocolate houses, as did the Dutch, where aristocrats sipped the heavenly drink in privacy.

Native to the tropics of Central and South America, the chocolate tree is a widely branching evergreen that may reach 40 feet in height, but is pruned to about 20 feet on plantations. Small fragrant clusters of pink or creamy flowers, borne on the trunk or main branches, develop into woody, football-shaped fruits up to one foot long. These range in color from yellow to reddish purple to brown. Within each fruit, embedded in a gelatinous pinkish pulp, are about 50 bitter seeds, or cocoa beans.

Harvesters scrape the beans and pulp together into fermenting troughs, where the sweet pulp liquefies and the beans lose their astringency then the beans are dried, roasted, shelled and processed into their constituent parts. Fat—more than 50 percent of a cocoa bean—is rendered into yellowish cocoa butter. Unlike most fats, it is not greasy. It also has a pleasant odor and does not easily become rancid, and so it is prized for use in soaps and other toiletry products, as well as, in suppositories and soothing ointments.

The fat-free powdered residue is cocoa; mixed with hot mild or water, it is the warming, energizing drink that northerly peoples still regard as food of the gods. Various grades of chocolate candy, from smooth milk chocolate to the hard, bitter blocks used by bakers, are made by combining the cocoa with assorted mixtures of cocoa butter, mild, vanilla and sweeteners. Because it is rich in stimulants, caffeine and theobromine, chocolate combats fatigue and gives a burst of quick energy. This is why soldiers have carried chocolate into battle from the period of the Civil War to modern times. In addition, recent research has found that chocolate has a soothing effect on troubled minds.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I want to thank everyone involved in and with the 4th of July fireworks and parade.

The parade was fantastic. Miss Clark had a great birthday.

All of the candy was not handled by any hands until it was tossed out. The bags were cut open with clean scissors and poured into bags. Then tied closed until the parade, and all hands were sanitized with sanitizer before they were handed out.

The trophy and the award was so unexpected and so appreciated.

THANK YOU
ALL AGAIN!!!

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice of Intent for Archway Solar Energy Facility

Summary

Date Issued: July 22 and August 1, 2020

Proposal: 400 megawatt (MW) photovoltaic (PV) solar energy generation facility occupying approximately 3,650 acres of agricultural-use (A-2) zoned land

Location: Lake County, east of Christmas Valley

Public Comment Deadline: September 4, 2020

Preliminary Application for Site Certificate -

Anticipated Date of Receipt: October 2020

Introduction

The Oregon Department of Energy (ODOE or Department), staff to the Energy Facility Siting Council (EFSC or Council), received a Notice of Intent (NOI) from Archway Solar Energy LLC (applicant), a wholly owned subsidiary of Invenergy Solar Development North America LLC, that it intends to submit a preliminary application for site certificate (pASC) to construct and operate the Archway Solar Energy Facility, a proposed PV solar energy generation facility. Under Oregon law, the applicant must obtain a site certificate from EFSC prior to construction and operation of the proposed facility. The Department is accepting public comments on the NOI from July 22 through September 4, 2020.

Proposed Facility Description

The Archway Solar Energy Facility would include up to 400 MW of solar PV energy generation components (solar modules, trackers, posts, cabling, inverters and transformers) to cover or occupy up to 3,650 acres, within an approximately 4,300 acre site boundary.

Proposed related or supporting facilities include lithium-ion or flow battery storage systems; power collection system and collection substation; point of interconnection 500 kilovolt (kV) substation; operation and maintenance building; 500 kV transmission line; internal roads; and temporary construction staging areas. More detailed information is available in NOI Exhibit B (see hyperlink to Department's project webpage in More Information below).

Proposed Facility Location

The proposed facility would be located in Lake County, southeast of Christmas Valley. A map of the proposed facility site boundary is attached to this notice. More maps are available in NOI Attachment 2; the Department maintains an online mapping program where the proposed facility site and regional location can be viewed via hyperlink: <https://arcg.is/1Gf8CK>.

EFSC Review Process

The review of an application for site certificate (ASC) is a consolidated, comprehensive process where the Department requests comments from state and local agencies, tribal governments and the general public throughout the process, and concurrently reviews other permits necessary for the proposed facility. The applicant must demonstrate that the proposed facility meets EFSC standards established under Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 469.501 and set forth in Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) Chapters 345, divisions 22 and 24, as well as all other applicable Oregon statutes, rules and standards. The Department serves as staff to EFSC and conducts the ASC review process.

Pursuant to ORS 469.504(4), an applicant must elect to demonstrate compliance with the statewide planning goals by either obtaining local land use approval from the affected local government(s) or through EFSC's determination of compliance. At this time, Archway Solar Energy LLC intends to satisfy the Council's Land Use standard (OAR 345-022-0030) by seeking an EFSC determination under ORS 469.504(1)(b).

CRITTER CORNER

Around the Christmas Valley Golf Course and on the banks of Baert Lake you can often see a very beautiful bird called a Yellow-headed Blackbird. The male Yellow-headed Blackbird is impressive to see, but not to hear; it may have the worst song of any North American bird, a loud hoarse, harsh scraping sound.

Yellow-headed Blackbirds nest in noisy colonies in big cattail marshes of the west and Midwest. Each male selecting territory within the colony and defending it against rivals by singing. One male may have as many as 5 mates. The nest (built by the female) is a bulky, deep cup woven of aquatic plants, lined with dry grass or with fine, dry marsh plants and is found firmly lashed to the cattails, bulrushes and reeds growing in water, usually no more than 3' above the water's surface. Both parents feed the nestlings. The young leave the nest after about 9-12 days, but remain among dense marsh plants until they are ready to fly, about 3 weeks after hatching. They have one brood per year, possibly two.

It is also common to find them in open pastures, plowed fields, cattle pens and feedlots foraging for insects and seeds. They feed heavily on insects in summer, especially beetles, caterpillars, and grasshoppers, also ants, wasps, and others, plus a few spiders and snails. Their young are fed mostly insects. Probably two-thirds of their diet consists of seeds, including grass and weed seeds plus waste grains.

When not nesting, they gather in flocks in open fields, often with other blackbirds. At some favored points in the south-west in winter, they may be seen in flocks of thousands.

The Yellow-headed Blackbird's population has undoubtedly declined in some areas with the draining of marshes; however, they are still widespread and very common.

Park and Rec Properties

Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District has adopted a policy concerning pets/animals on Park and Rec properties. This policy is an attempt to keep our facilities an enjoyable place for all users.

When on Christmas Valley Park and Recreation property (including the Rodeo Grounds, Golf Course, Play Area, etc.) all domestic animals, whether pets livestock, or other, must be leashed and/or under the direct control and supervision of their owner/handler.

Horses are not allowed on the Golf Course at any time- EVER!

Any defecation (poop) from the animal must be cleaned up immediately by the owner/handler. Individuals failing to comply with this policy will be asked to leave Park and Rec property. Animals freely roaming, with no apparent owner/handler in the area may be treated as strays. The proper authorities will then be contacted.

And PLEASE, keep off the Golf Course while the ground is frozen... Especially the greens.
Thank You!

You and your child are invited to join Mrs. Anthony on the first and third Thursdays of each month from 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. at the North Lake School annex building for a Mommy and Me Play Group.
