RECORD ATTENDANCE AT THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS VALLEY PARK AND RECREATION DISTRICT INDEPENDENCE DAY GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 2021 Golf Tournament was held on Saturday, July 3rd. Dan Kinion, one of the Golf Committee members, who has been instrumental in organizing this annual event for more than 13 years commented at a recent CVPR Board meeting that the turn out is a record in all his years of helping with the event. There were 52 participants this year!

CVPR would like to thank Greg & Kristen Rondeau and Dan & Kathy Kinion for hosting the BBQ at their lovely home on the 6th Green.

A lot of work went into getting the golf course ready for this event. We are fortunate to have a great Grounds keeper, Robbie Newport, who worked long hours to get the Green's repaired and the golf course ready for this event. Jim Strong, Dan Maple, Greg Rondeau and Dan Kinion made sure the course was ready, as well, and we thank them for hanging sponsor banners throughout the course.

Thank you to all the sponsors and businesses that religiously support our annual tournament and provide great raffle items for our participants: Christmas Valley Market (Fast Break), J.W. Kerns, Robbins Equipment, Sagewood Grocery, Santa's Hardware, Lakeside Terrace, Klamath Basin Equipment, Handde Pump & Electric, Chuck & Sue Bean and Oregon Country Realty.

The CV Golf Committee would also like to thank their Board representative, Shara Shumway, for her hard work year after year. She does a lot of the shopping for the BBQ, and she is always there to resolve any problem that may arise; she keeps everything running smoothly. Thank you, Shara!

Bootleg Fire roars to 227,000 acres Updated 9:04 a.m. Thursday, July 15

The Bootleg Fire burning north-east of Klamath Falls grew again on Wednesday, reaching 227,234 acres and eating into the Gearhart Mountain Wilderness and north towards Lake Henry.

High winds and extremely dry fuels led to the rise of multiple pyrocumulus clouds over the fire, according to the National Weather Service in Medford, and the extreme weather isn't expected to change any time soon, officials said.

"This fire is going to continue to grow - the extremely dry vegetation and weather are not in our favor," Joe Hessel, Incident Commander for ODF Team 1 Incident Management Team said. "We are going to continue to prepare lines, protect structures, and move resources as we can around the fire's edge."

The fire is 7% contained. Fire crews are also dealing with the smaller 2,000 acre Log Fire just north of the main fire.

"Please send positive thoughts and well wishes to the firefighters right now," NWS said. "It's a tough time for them right now."

With continued west winds predicted, firefighters will continue to work to hold the fire to the 34 Road to prevent further eastern and southern spread.

"Heavy beetle killed timber and active fire behavior will present challenges in keeping the fire north and west of this road," officials said Thursday.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Several of the properties in the Christmas Valley township have utility easements for the Christmas Valley Water District.

When you have a utility easement on your property, the utility company/Water District may have a range of legal rights.

A few restrictions you might face include:

- Utility company/Water District access without your approval.
- Utility company/Water District may restrict your use of the easement when your use can harm underground water mains, valves, water meters, and the like.
- Restrictions on physical alterations: You may want to make an improvement to a certain section of your property. But the utility easement may prevent certain upgrades, such as erecting a fence or a gate.
- Vegetation restrictions: The utility company may require regular access to a particular area and constantly tear up your garden. Additionally, many utility easements limit the planting of major trees in a specified area.

If you're considering purchasing a property with a utility easement, take some time to research the local laws and regulations.

If you have questions regarding your utility easement call:
(541) 576-2090 or (541) 947-6921

North Lake Health District says Farewell to three Board Members and Welcomes three new Board Members

Carl Shumway and Sandie Maerz have retired after many years of service to the North Lake Health District (NLHD). Carl was one of the founders of the NLHD and has been a Board member since the inception. Sandie was the first office manager of NLHD until 2017 when she became an NLHD Board member.

Both Carl and Sandie served NLHD for over 20 years.

Earl Diment has served NLHD as a Board member for eight years and was recently unseated by Nathan Church by popular vote in the last election held on May 18th, 2021.

Alice Dinsdale Presents Carl Shumway with a commemorative plaque for his many years of dedication and service to NLHD.

Alice Dinsdale Presents Sandie Maerz with a commemorative clock for her many years of dedication and service to NLHD.

At the last regular Board meeting on Monday, July 5th, 2021, three new Board members were sworn in. By popular vote in the May 18th election Deanna Roberts won the NLHD Position No. 1, Daniel Miles won the NLHD Position No. 2, and Nathan Church won the NLHD Position No. 5.

They were sworn in by Vice Chair, Alice Dinsdale.

After the swearing in ceremony of the three new Board members the Board voted in new officers. Alice Dinsdale was voted Chairman of the NLHD Board, Kathy Thompson was voted Vice Chair, and Daniel Miles was voted Secretary/Treasurer.

The previous Board members leave quite a legacy. The new Board members have big shoes to fill, but all seem to be pointed in the right direction and are eager to fulfill their commitment to NLHD and the community it serves.

New Shaw Journal Features Lake County Sites

Submitted by Lee Juillarat

Several stories about Lake County, including the area's geology, are featured in the newly released book, "Far Corners 2: More Seldom Seen Places in the Land of the Lakes," the 2021 Journal of the Shaw Historical Library.

After the success of 2020's "Far Corners," members of Shaw's board of governors decided to do a follow-up issue, again devoted to little known, often forgotten places in a region that includes Lake County, the Klamath Basin, northwestern Nevada and northern California.

Among the featured stories is "Lake County Volcanic Features," by John Moran, which details cataclysmic events that created such places as Fort Rock, Crack in the Ground, Abert Rim, the Fort Rock Basin, Hole in the Ground, and Fossil Lake. Moran's text is accompanied with several color photographs and maps.

Jana Kittredge provides "Homestead to Modern Day Lifestyles in the Fort Rock Basin while Marie Lee, the Lake County Museum director, has writes about "Lake County Railroad History" and "Indian John and Maggie." Both of Lee's articles include historical photographs.

Several other articles feature Lake County locations, including two about Christmas Valley, including, "Christmas in Christmas Valley," which focuses on this year's 40th anniversary of the U.S. Postal Service's national release of the 1981 "Teddy Bear Stamp" during ceremonies in Christmas Valley.

Other regional stories include Kinney Camp, Gerlach, "A Killing in Warner Valley," Fields and the nearby Surprise Valley, among others.

Last year's Journal, which also featured several Lake County-related stories, has been reprinted.

"This year's issue is a continuation of these stories," Bill Johnson, the Journal's co-editor notes in the introduction, referring to the demand for the 2020 "Far Corners." "This year" Johnson is among the 16 authors who have contributed stories from "the Land of the Lakes." Other articles include the two Tule Lakes (in California and Oregon), Crater Lake National Park's Pumice Desert, "Murder and Milkshakes" in Fields, "Northern Klamath County Towns That Weren't," and "Louieville: Modoc County's Mythical Town." Included, too, are stories about settlements and communities that were or, in some cases, exist with small populations, such as Merganser, Crane, Olene, Vya, and Klamath Hot Springs "Malin Labor Camp," by Ryan Bartholomew, tells about the little-known camp that housed migrant farm workers before construction of the Newell Migrant Center.

Along with Bartholomew, Moran and Johnson, authors include the late Jack Bowden, Lawrence Powers, Stephen Mark, Sylvia Copeland, Marie Lee, John Driscoll, Ken Johnston, Larry Wagner, Danny Hawkes, John Griffin and Lee Juillarat. Several Larry Turner photos are featured in essay, "Surprise Valley Reminisces."

Johnson notes the goal of the "Far Corners" journals is to provide information on places people may or may not have heard about or visited. In his introduction, Johnson refers to the original "Far Corners," in which Larry Powers, an author and co-editor,

As always we had a wonderful parade. The youngsters were so excited to be able to get the candy that was thrown to them. We had quite a large gathering of people joining the on the Highway to watch it. Love the horses, the Lake County Queen and Princess were very pretty, with big smiles. It looks as though we have some very nice fire trucks and ambulance and lots of participation in the parade!

How adorable Kim Watson and daughter were, even though it was so hot they didn't make it through the whole parade, I saw Becky Womack helping lead the pony at the end but that's what community friends are all about!

The market at the at the Lodge seemed to do very well this year. We all miss the water park by the library and the strawberry shortcake, but everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

The Flowerree park filled up slowly, but when the music began they filled the park. Food and beer garden went well. People enjoyed being able to visit with long time friends and good music. Then came the magnificent fireworks display. It was beautiful! I must thank all the pyros for their excellent job as usual. Wh have the best show in Oregon as far as I am concerned. Some Oregon counties were not allowed to have them due to fire levels. We are so lucky to have our island at Baert Lake to set them off.

I hope that everyone enjoyed this 4th as much as I did.

Dorothy at the Lodge had a good day of business. Thank you, Dorothy and all patrons for a wonderful day!

Love to all!

~Linda
