The First Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

*A Look back at the humble origins of an American holiday tradition
—the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.*

By: CHRISTOPHER KLEIN

As the United States prospered during the Roaring Twenties, so did New York City's iconic department store—Macy's. After going public in 1922, R. H. Macy & Co. started to acquire competitors and open regional locations. Macy's flagship store in Manhattan's Herald Square did such a brisk business that it expanded in 1924 to cover an entire city block stretching from Broadway to Seventh Avenue along 34th Street.

To showcase the opening of the "World's Largest Store" and its 1 million square feet of retail space at the start of the busy holiday shopping season, Macy's decided to throw New York a parade on Thanksgiving morning. In spite of its timing, the parade was not actually about Thanksgiving at all but the next major holiday on the calendar—Christmas. Macy's hoped its "Christmas Parade" would whet the appetites of consumers for a holiday shopping feast.

The idea of a store-sponsored Thanksgiving parade did not originate with Macy's, however, but with Philadelphia's Gimbel Brothers Department Store, which first staged a Thanksgiving procession in 1920 with 50 people, 15 cars and a fireman dressed as Santa Claus who ushered in the Christmas shopping season. Like Macy's, J.L. Hudson's Department Store in Detroit also planned a similar event in 1924. In New York, however, the only Thanksgiving parade that had previously passed through the city's streets was its peculiar—and to many, annoying—tradition of children painting their faces and donning tattered clothes to masquerade as "ragamuffins" who asked "Anything for Thanksgiving?" as they begged door-to-door for pennies, apples and pieces of candy.

At 9 a.m. on the sunlit morning of November 27, 1924, Macy's gave the children of New York a particularly special Thanksgiving treat as a police escort led the start of the parade from the intersection of 145th Street and Convent Avenue. The early-morning start time of "Macy's Christmas Parade" overlapped with many church services, but it gave spectators plenty of time to make it to the afternoon's big football game between Syracuse and Columbia universities at the Polo Grounds. Macy's had promised parade-goers "a marathon of mirth" in its full-page newspaper advertisements. While the parade route may not have extended over 26 miles, its 6-mile length certainly made for a long hike for those marching from Harlem to Herald Square. The spectators who stood four and five people deep, however, could watch it all in just a matter of minutes since the modest street pageant stretched the length of only two city blocks.

To match the nursery-rhyme theme in Macy's Christmas window display in 1924, floats featured Mother Goose favorites such as the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe, Little Miss Muffet and Little Red Riding Hood. Macy's employees dressed as clowns, cowboys and sword-wielding knights. A menagerie of animals on loan from the Central Park Zoo—including bears, elephants, camels and monkeys—offered a circus-like atmosphere as four bands provided the soundtrack to the festive march. Bringing up the rear of the parade was a float bearing the guest of honor—Santa Claus—sitting in his reindeer-driven sleigh on top of a mountain of ice.

Although the parade garnered only two sentences the following day in the New York Herald—the same amount of ink given to the charity dinner and screening of the "The Ten Commandments" for the prisoners at the Sing Sing correctional facility—it proved such a smash that Macy's announced in a newspaper ad-

NORTH LAKE COMMUNITY

The North Lake Community School Network (NLCSN) is a parent group supporting the students and teachers of the North Lake School. We provide support through many school-based activities. One method of support is to provide school supplies to all students. We have coordinated a school supply fundraising effort the past two years. In 2020-2021 NLCSN provided most student supplies for kindergarten through sixth grade. This year, 2021-2022, donor support helped us provide supplies for kindergarten through twelfth grade.

Additional activities include the Veteran's Breakfast, School Book Fair, staff appreciation week, and the end of year Track and Field Day.

Materials provided for elementary classrooms included pencils, crayons, colored pencils, markers, erasers, glue, paper, highlighters, and many other items based upon teacher requests. Middle and high school students could select from an assortment of paper, folders, binders, pens, pencils, highlighters, USB drives, and more.

We will be doing a donation drive again this fall.

"We at North Lake, are very fortunate to have NLCSN provide us with school supplies. The burden it takes off of families and staff is huge. The families are able to buy clothes and snacks for their children, without the worry of supplies. Thank you so much for all you do for us!" – Carrie Brown, 4th grade teacher, North Lake School.

vertisement the following morning that it would stage the parade again the following Thanksgiving. "We did not dare dream its success would be so great," stated the advertisement.

Macy's Christmas Parade quickly became a New York holiday tradition to the joy of nearly all except the zoo animals, who did not revel in the six-mile journey, and the marchers treading carefully in their wake. The roars and growls from the tired animals frightened young spectators, so they were replaced by less-surly and more-obedient character balloons, which quickly became the parade's signature attractions after the debut of a helium-filled Felix the Cat, designed by Sarg, in 1927.

While the route has been scaled back to a length of two-and-a-half miles, the size of the parade itself has blossomed with dozens of balloons, marching bands, celebrities and cheerleaders. Although it is now called the "Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade," Santa Claus remains the show-stopper, and his arrival in Herald Square still heralds in the Christmas season in New York.

Dandelion: Taraxacum Officinale

Children love the opportunity to blow a puff of dandelion seeds in the wind. The call them fairies. Dandelion is commonly regarded as a weed that grows just about anywhere. There are some look-a-like flowers so be sure you identify them properly before harvesting. It is in the Aster/Daisy family.

Dandelion is a perennial herb plant native to North America. It grows from a tap-root that reaches deep into the soil. It grows up to a foot in height and flowers from April to June sometimes out here it can bloom till frost happens). It produces a yellow flower head consisting of florets. Leaves grow from the base of the plant in an elongated shape with highly jagged edges which resemble a lions tooth, giving the plant its name.

The entire plant is edible and nutritious. The young leaves are best for greens, since they grow more bitter with age but less so when watered lots. They can be cooked or eaten raw. Dandelion root is sometimes dried and roasted for a coffee substitute. Roots can also be cooked and eaten. They are some what bitter, with a taste similar to a turnip. The flowers make a nice salad garnish or can be battered and fried. Unopened flower buds are prepared into pickles similar to capers. Flowers can also be boiled and served with butter. Leaves and roots make a pleasant, but bitter tea. Flowers are fermented to make dandelion wine, leaves and roots are used to flavor herbal beers and soft drinks.

The entire dandelion is used medicinally. The bitter roots are good for gastrointestinal and liver problems as well as fighting cancer, while the leaves have a powerful diuretic effect. The plant makes a great general tonic and benefits the entire body. It is high in vitamins, minerals, and antioxidants. Use the tea and tincture for internal problems.

Dandelion root is used to aid digestion and benefits the kidneys, gallbladder, and liver. It stimulates bile production, helping with the digestion of fats and toxin removal. Use it to treat jaundice and raise energy levels after infections. It removes toxins from the body and restores the electrolyte balance, which improves liver health and function. For general health, do a two week liver cleanse with a homemade liver tonic made with Dandelion root and Milk Thistle seed tincture blend every six months. It also helps prevent gallstones. Dandelion contains inulin, a carbohydrate that helps maintain healthy gut flora and helps to regulate blood sugar level. The plant is rich in fiber, which adds bulk to the stool, reducing the chances of constipation, diarrhea, and digestive issues.

Vitamins and antioxidants help protect the liver from toxins and treats liver hemorrhages. The tea is used to treat non-alcoholic fatty liver disease. The liver tonic blend (Dandelion Root/Milk Thistle Seed Extract) reversed a lady's liver disease to the point that she no longer needs a liver transplant. This blend is also good for cirrhosis and hepatitis.

Dandelion leaves are a powerful diuretic and blood purifier. They stimulate the liver and gallbladder while eliminating toxins through the production and excretion of urine as well as flush the kidneys at the same time it helps replace lost potassium and other minerals that are lost when water and salt are expelled. Dandelion juice stimulates the production of insulin in the pancreas-regulating blood sugar levels and helps control lipid levels. The root coupled with Burdock root is used to treat cancer. Dandelion is also high in calcium and vitamin K; known to strengthen bones.

Fresh dandelion juice applied to skin helps wounds to heal and fights bacteria and fungi that would cause infection. The sap (Dandelion milk) treats itches, ringworm, eczema, warts and corns when applied directly to the affected area. It is also useful in treating acne. Some people are allergic to Dandelion sap, so watch for signs of dermatitis on first use.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Several of the properties in the Christmas Valley township have utility easements for the Christmas Valley Water District.

When you have a utility easement on your property, the utility company/Water District may have a range of legal rights.

A few restrictions you might face include:

- Utility company/Water District access without your approval.
- Utility company/Water District may restrict your use of the easement when your use can harm underground water mains, valves, water meters, and the like.
- Restrictions on physical alterations: You may want to make an improvement to a certain section of your property. But the utility easement may prevent certain upgrades, such as erecting a fence or a gate.
- Vegetation restrictions: The utility company may require regular access to a particular area and constantly tear up your garden. Additionally, many utility easements limit the planting of major trees in a specified area.

If you're considering purchasing a property with a utility easement, take some time to research the local laws and regulations.

If you have questions regarding your utility easement call:

In Loving Memory

Earl Eugene Jacobe

June 3, 1943

October 19, 2021

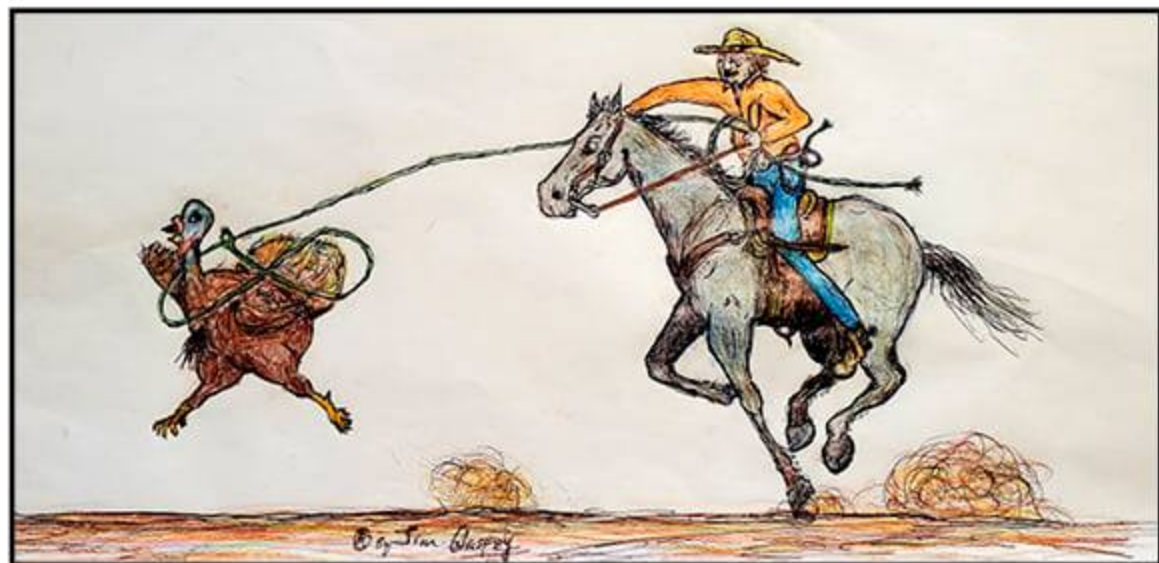

Earl Jacobe of Christmas Valley, Oregon passed away on October 19, 2021 at the age of 78.

Earl was born on June 3, 1943 in Osborn, Kansas to Vernon and Golda Jacobe. He was the youngest of four children. His family later settled in the Turner, Oregon area.

Earl worked. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, collecting coins and reloading ammo for himself and family. He loved to take a drive into the hills to look at the scenery and wildlife, and to ride quads and shoot guns. Earl enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren. He especially got a kick out of the younger ones. He enjoyed meeting his friends for coffee most morning each week to discuss the demise of society and reminiscing of the good ole times.

Earl is survived by his wife, Mindy; two sons, Kelly (Ingrid) of Scio and Heath (Terri) of Salem; his daughter, Lori (Bruce) Kimball of Turner; ten grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren; his sister, Barbara Bechard. He was also a big part of Mindy's children's, Ashley, Nick and Mason, and grandchildren's lives. He was dearly loved by all and will be missed by all.

No services have been scheduled at this time.

Lake County Planning Commission
Notice of Public Hearing

NOTICE IS HEREBY given that the Lake County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Tuesday, December 7, 2021, at 6:00pm, by Zoom (please request the link) or in-person at the Christmas Valley Community Hall at 87345 Holly Lane, Christmas Valley, Oregon 97641, to receive public comment and testimony on the following applications. Failure to raise an issue at the hearing or to provide sufficient specificity precludes your ability to appeal the decision to the Board of Commissioners. If you have needs requiring special arrangements, please call 541-947-6036 at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT, COMPREHENSIVE PLAN CHANGE (GOAL 3 EXCEPTION)
APPLICATION NO. 21-050-CUP, 21-051-CP

Public Hearing concerning an application by Webster Road Solar Farm II LLC to establish a Photovoltaic Solar Project (Utility Facility), which requires a Goal 3 Exception (Comprehensive Plan Change). The Planning Commission will review all project components of the applications submitted and give a Recommendation to the County Board of Commissioners (BOC). If later approved by the BOC, the Exception would allow a PV Solar project to be established on a parcel greater than 320 acres, but less than 1920 acres of nonarable land. Commercial Utility Facilities or other facilities for the purpose of generating power for sale are allowed as conditional uses under the Lake County Zoning Ordinance Articles 3 and 24, Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 215.283, and Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 660-033-0130(38). The proposed solar site would be: T255 R14E TL 109, 113, 111 and 112 in the A-2 Agriculture Use Zone. The notice of public hearing has been mailed to all adjacent owners with 750 feet, which includes maps, a list of adjacent owners. Notice is also provided to all affected agencies (local, state, and federal) and a 35-day notice in advance of the hearing to the Department of Land Conservation and Development (DLCD). The application materials are available on the Land Use / Planning page of the county website and in the Planning Office in the Courthouse between normal business hours of 8:30-5:00 M-F and during the hearing. A Staff Report, addressing all of the criteria for the recommendations/decisions on the above applications will be available 7 days prior to the hearing. If you have any questions contact Darwin Johnson, Planning Director at 541-947-6036 or by email at djohnson@co.lake.or.us.

Published by the Lake County Planning Department, November 24, 2021

From the Application: Exhibit A-1: Project Description

The proposed project is a photovoltaic (PV) solar power generation facility as defined in Oregon Administrative Rules OAR 660-033-0130 (38)(f).

The project will primarily comprise of PV modules installed on fixed-tilt or single-axis tracking structures. These structures will be secured with foundation systems selected based on site-specific soil conditions, most likely driven steel piles or helical ground screws.

The PV modules will be connected to DC-to-AC inverters, electrical and transmission equipment for delivering the generated renewable energy to the electrical grid. The project may also include equipment capable of storing part of or the entire production of the facility (e.g., batteries). Such equipment will be installed on concrete pads or other comparable support.

The project will be surrounded by a chain-link (or comparable) fence, per applicable electrical codes.

The appearance of the completed project will be similar to the existing Outback Solar Project in Christmas Valley, and the site will be fully revegetated following construction with native species.

Lake County Planning Commission
Notice of Public Hearing

Initial project development activities will be ongoing over the next several years prior to commencement of long-term commercial operation of the project, including further environmental studies, design and engineering, telecommunications and related supporting infrastructure. The facility will interconnect into the electric grid via the recently approved (19-056-ZP; 12/5/2019) gen-tie along the eastern side of the site to the BPA line on Connely Lane, or another gen-tie will be constructed along the same or similar corridor, or via the Midstate Electric Cooperative (MEC) system.

Additional details are provided in the Site Plan, attached as Exhibit A-2.

Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District

invites everyone to enjoy the Park and Rec properties.

We ask that while enjoying the properties; specifically, the Golf Course, the Rodeo Grounds, the playground, the multi-use field and Baert Lake, that you be a good steward and please do not litter, please maintain control of your pets by keeping dogs on a leash and/or maintaining constant supervision. If your dog should defecate on the premises, please be sure to pick up after it.

Horses and camping are only permitted at the Rodeo Grounds.

Being good stewards and taking pride in these properties reflects on our community as a whole.

Thank you for your continued support of Christmas Valley Park and Recreation District.

SUICIDE WARNING SIGNS

These signs may mean someone is at risk for suicide. Risk is greater if a behavior is new or has increased and if it seems related to a painful event, loss, or change.

- Talking about wanting to die or to kill oneself.
- Looking for a way to kill oneself, such as searching online or buying a gun.
- Talking about feeling hopeless or having no reason to live.
- Talking about feeling trapped or in unbearable pain.
- Talking about being a burden to others.
- Increasing the use of alcohol or drugs.
- Acting anxious, agitated or behaving recklessly.
- Sleeping too little or too much.
- Withdrawing or feeling isolated.
- Showing rage or talking about seeking revenge.
- Displaying extreme mood swings.

Suicide Is Preventable. Call the Lifeline at:
1-800-273-TALK (8255).
