Nation Observes Veterans Day and Salutes the Troops

By David Vergun, DOD News

November 11 is Veterans Day, a federal holiday that is meant to honor all veterans of the uniformed services who served or are still serving during times of peace as well as war.

Veterans Day has its origins at the end of World War I when at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, the fighting ended with the signing of an armistice.

In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the first Armistice Day, Nov. 11. The day is also known as Remembrance Day in the Commonwealth of Nations. Wilson's proclamation stated:

"To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nations..."

Congress officially passed a concurrent resolution on June 4, 1926, with these words:

"Whereas the 11th of November 1918, marked the cessation of the most destructive, sanguinary, and far reaching war in human annals and the resumption by the people of the United States of peaceful relations with other nations, which we hope may never again be severed, and, whereas it is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this date should be commemorated with thanksgiving and prayer and exercises designed to perpetuate peace through good will and mutual understanding between nations"

The resolution also encouraged the display of the U.S. flag on all government buildings and urged appropriate ceremonies.

A congressional act, approved May 13, 1938, made Nov. 11, a federal holiday.

In 1954, Congress — at the urging of veterans' organizations — changed the name to Veterans Day to honor service members who had served in all of the nation's wars.

It should be pointed out that Veterans Day celebrates the service of all U.S. military veterans, while Memorial Day, a federal holiday on the last Monday in May, honors those who have died while in military service.

Another military holiday that also occurs in May, Armed Forces Day, observed on the third Saturday in May, honors those currently serving in the U.S. military.

Every Veterans Day, a number of restaurants and retailers offer discounts and special promotions for those who have served or are still serving. Most require proof of service. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, types of veteran identifications include:

- Defense Department ID cards
- Veteran Health ID cards
- Veteran ID cards
- Veteran's designation on a state-issued driver's licenses or ID cards

Information on how to obtain these ID cards can be found here: <https://www.va.gov/records/get-veteran-id-cards/>.

Klamath and Lake Community Action Services Establishes Presence in Lakeview

Lakeview, Oregon – 2024 marks the 60th year since the Community Action Network was established to help American families and communities overcome obstacles to poverty. This year, Klamath and Lake Community Action Services, a proud member of the Community Action network, will also be celebrating 20 years of helping Oregonians throughout Klamath and Lake counties. To provide in-person access to residents of Lakeview and Lake County to the services provided by KLCAS, we have joined several community partners at the Community Resource Station located at 223 North F Street in Lakeview. KLCAS' Community Resource Specialist, Mary McQuay, will be available during business hours to accept applications for energy or rental/move in assistance, provide referrals to other community resources and provide information on the programs provided by KLCAS.

Mary expressed deep admiration for the impactful work of KLCAS, stating, "I find the efforts of KLCAS truly inspiring, and it is a privilege to be involved in such meaningful initiatives. KLCAS' dedication to positive change resonates widely, highlighting the power of collective efforts to uplift the community. Each act of support we provide serves as a crucial steppingstone toward fostering a stronger and more vibrant community."

KLCAS is excited to have a team member at the Community Resource Station to connect Lake County residents to services at KLCAS and other community resources. We believe in the importance of meeting people where they are, providing services that are efficient and supportive and linking community members to resources that can assist them in navigating systemic or situational barriers. In that vein, a portion of Mrs. McQuay's time will be spent travelling to the smaller communities in Lake County, including Christmas Valley, Summer Lake, Silver Lake and Paisley.

Contact: Mary McQuay, 541-310-1574, marym@klcas.org
