The Christmas Guest

It happened one day at the year's white end,
Two neighbors called on an old-time friend
And they found his shop so meager and mean,
Made merry with a thousand boughs of green,
And Conrad was sitting with face a-shine
When he suddenly stopped as he stitched a twine
And said, "Old friends, at dawn today,
When the cock was crowing the night away,
The Lord appeared in a dream to me
And said, 'I am coming your guest to be.'
So I've been busy with feet astir,
Strewing my shop with branches of fir,
The table is spread and the kettle is shined
And over the rafters the holly is twined,
And now I will wait for my Lord to appear
And listen closely so I will hear
His step as He nears my humble place,
And I open the door and look in His face."
So his friends went home and left Conrad alone,
For this was the happiest day he had known,
For, long since, his family had passed away
And Conrad has spent a sad Christmas Day.
But he knew with the Lord as his Christmas guest
This Christmas would be the dearest and best,
And he listened with only joy in his heart.
And with every sound he would rise with a start
And look for the Lord to be standing there
In answer to his earnest prayer
So he ran to the window after hearing a sound,
But all that he saw on the snow-covered ground
Was a shabby beggar whose shoes were torn
And all of his clothes were ragged and worn.
So Conrad was touched and went to the door
And he said, "Your feet must be frozen and sore,
And I have some shoes in my shop for you
And a coat that will keep you warmer, too."
So with grateful heart the man went away,
But as Conrad noticed the time of day
He wondered what made the dear Lord so late And how much longer he'd have to wait,
When he heard a knock and ran to the door,
But it was only a stranger once more,

A bent, old crone with a shawl of black,
A bundle of kindling piled on her back.
She asked for only a place to rest,
But that was reserved for Conrad's Great Guest.
But her voice seemed to plead, "Don't send me away
Let me rest awhile on Christmas day."
So Conrad brewed her a steaming cup
And told her to sit at the table and sip.
But after she left he was filled with dismay
For he saw that the hours were passing away
And the Lord had not come as He said He would,
And Conrad felt sure he had misunderstood.
When out of the stillness he heard a cry,
"Please help me and tell me where am I."
So again he opened his friendly door
And stood disappointed as twice before,
It was only a child who had wandered away
And was lost from her family on Christmas Day.
Again Conrad's heart was heavy and sad,
But he knew he should make this little child glad,
So he called her in and wiped her tears
And quieted her childish fears.
Then he led her back to her home once more
But as he entered his own darkened door,
He knew that the Lord was not coming today
For the hours of Christmas had passed away.
So he went to his room and knelt down to pray
And he said, "Dear Lord, why did you delay?
What kept You from coming to call on me,
For I wanted so much Your face to see."
When soft in the silence a voice he heard,
"Lift up your head, for I kept My word --
Three times My shadow crossed your floor
--Three times I came to your lonely door --
For I was the beggar with bruised, cold feet,
I was the woman you gave to eat,
And I was the child on the homeless street.
Three times I knocked and three times I came in,
And each time I found the warmth of a friend.
Of all the gifts, love is the best,
And I was honored to be your Christmas Guest

PUBLIC NOTICE

BLM Lakeview Field Office will be closed during remodeling
Services available online or at Lakeview Interagency Fire Center

LAKEVIEW, Ore. — The Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) Lakeview Field Office, 1301 South G Street in Lakeview, will be closed to the public for remodeling beginning December 1, 2024, until July 2025.

"A new interior layout will better meet the needs of both the Bureau of Land Management and U.S. Forest Service staff, and the new design will be a great improvement to the current building," said Angela Bulla, Deputy District Manager. "The front lobby will also be updated creating a fresh and welcoming space for the public."

The BLM front desk staff normally assigned to the Lakeview office will work from the Lakeview Interagency Fire Center at 1000 South Ninth Street, Lakeview, OR. Bureau of Land Management front desk services will continue as normal at the LIFC location. Phone calls to the Lakeview office at 541 947-2177 will be routed to a receptionist who will be able to connect callers to BLM staff. Those interested in purchasing maps can do so online at blm.gov/maps. Those needing firewood cutting permits can obtain them online at forestproducts.blm.gov/. These services will still be available in-person, but we're encouraging the public to utilize these services online.

The BLM staff have been working from the 1301 South G Street location since 1997.

The Lakeview Field Office oversees about 3.2 million acres of public lands in Lake and part of Harney counties.

NOTICE IS HEREBY given that the Lake County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Tuesday, December 3, 2024, at 6:00pm, by Zoom at <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/84185606888> or in-person at the Board of Commissioners Meeting Room of the County Courthouse at 513 Center Street, Lakeview, Oregon, to receive public comment and testimony on the following application. Failure to raise an issue at the hearing or to provide sufficient specificity precludes your ability to appeal the decision to the Board of Commissioners. If you have needs requiring special arrangements, please call 541-947-6036 at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.
