General John A. Logan, Memorial Day Founder

Originally called Decoration Day, when Americans took time to decorate the graves of soldiers who gave their lives in the Civil War, today's national holiday of Memorial Day honors all American soldiers who died in defense of the nation. While several towns claim to be the site of the first Memorial Day celebration, one man, John A. Logan, deserves much of the credit for the establishment of Memorial Day as a national holiday.

John A. Logan, was born 9 February 1826 in Jackson County, Illinois. He served as an officer with the 1st Illinois Volunteer Infantry during the Mexican War but did not see any combat. Upon his return home to Illinois, he became involved in state politics and was elected to the US House of Representatives as a Democrat in November 1858. A powerful orator, he staunchly defended the Union during the months leading up to the Civil War despite representing an area of Illinois that harbored secessionist sentiments. In fact, his oratorical skills swayed many of his constituents to change their views and support the Union.

Upon the outbreak of hostilities in 1861, Logan volunteered his services as a soldier and served with a Michigan regiment at the Battle of First Bull Run on 21 July 1861. After the battle, he returned home to Illinois to recruit a regiment, the 31st Illinois, and was named the regiment's colonel. Nicknamed "Black Jack" for his black hair and dark eyes and complexion, Logan led his regiment into combat for the first time at Belmont in November 1861. He proved to be a natural military leader and later fought with distinction at Fort Donelson, Corinth, and Vicksburg, and rose to the rank of major general of volunteers. During the Atlanta campaign, he commanded XV Corps, was wounded, and then temporarily commanded the Army of the Tennessee. He was replaced as corps commander by Major General O.O. Howard, a decision made by Major General William T. Sherman because of Sherman's mistrust of "political" generals, not because of Logan's fighting abilities. The decision led Logan to despise professional soldiers, especially West Pointers, for the rest of his life. Logan, however, dutifully served under Sherman for the rest of the war until the surrender of Confederate General Joseph E. Johnston in April 1865 in North Carolina. Many historians consider Logan the best of the Union Army's political generals.

Following the Civil War, Logan was instrumental in the founding of the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR), a veterans group comprised of former Union Army soldiers, and served as the GAR's second elected national commander; General Stephen Hurlburt was the first commander in chief of the GAR. On 3 March 1868, Logan issued General Order No. 11, which called for a national day of remembrance for Civil War dead. This order served as the basis for what became the national holiday of Memorial Day.

Logan also returned to politics after the war as a Republican and served in both the House and Senate. He was on the 1884 Republican ticket as vice president with presidential candidate James Blaine. Logan died on 26 December 1886 and is buried at the United States Soldiers' & Airmen's Home National Cemetery in Washington, DC.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Lakeview, OR – Lake County Public Transit Lake County Board of Commissioners voted on Wednesday, May 7, 2025 to relocate Lake County Public Transit dispatch services to Inner Court Family Center in Paisley. Lake County had advertised for proposals for Public Transit services for the 2025/2026 funding cycle. Two proposals were received, which were reviewed by the Lake County Special Transit Advisory Committee. The Committee recommended the proposal to relocate dispatch services to a more central location. The transfer of the dispatch center will enable additional services to be provided to all of Lake County. New rides will be ordered, and there will be additional drivers hired in North Lake County. Inner Court Family Center, Lake County Senior Citizens Association and the Lake County Transit Administrator will work together to make the transition as smooth as possible, and without any disruption in service to Lake County Public Transit users. You can watch and listen to the Lake County Board of Commissioners May 7, 2025 session on the Lake County Facebook page, "Lake County, Oregon."

My name is Jennifer Gleason Smith. My husband and I moved to Christmas Valley as full time residents 3 years ago.

I'm a 55 year old mom to 2 boys who are now in their mid 20's and I'm a grandma to a 2 1/2 year old.

I graduated from college with an Associate's degree in General Studies and a Certificate in Dental Assisting. Before I retired I worked as a dental assistant for 8 years. I also worked for 2 years as a customer service representative for a health insurance administrator. I enjoyed customer service, but wanted to work with people in person, so I began working in different types of grocery and convenience stores in management positions over a 20 year period.

All of these job positions taught me to be organized and productive. They taught me that communication is key!

I thoroughly enjoy being a part of the community. Being an involved resident is very important to me, and that is the reason that I am running for a Board position on the Christmas Valley Park and Recreation Board and on the North Lake Health District Board. I feel that this is a way that I can contribute to this wonderful community.

Thank you!

South Central Oregon Prescribed Fire

Bly, ORE. – Starting next week, May 7, the Fremont-Winema National Forest plans to conduct under burn work in the Bly Ridge area. Members of the public and the surrounding communities may see smoke over the next several days while work is underway.

We use prescribed fires to help reduce overgrown vegetation to help protect local communities, infrastructure and natural resources from wildfires. Applying prescribed fire is a part of our continued commitment to protecting communities and natural resources from wildfires.

Areas, where prescribed fire operations are taking place, will be well signed and may have increased fire personnel, traffic, and smoke in the area. Please stay clear of these areas when possible, for public and firefighter safety. Prescribed fire occurs on days when the weather conditions are favorable for smoke dispersal. If overall fuel and weather conditions are favorable, firefighters ignite a test fire before moving forward with the prescribed fire. If the test-fire indicates conditions are not suitable, the prescribed fire will be postponed until conditions improve.

Klamath and Lake Community Action Services Introduces Community Resource Specialist

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Julia Solorio, 541-310-1574, julias@klcas.org

Lakeview, Oregon, May 1, 2025 - This year, Klamath and Lake Community Action Services, a proud member of the Community Action network, is celebrating 21 years of helping Oregonians throughout Klamath and Lake counties. To provide in-person access to the services provided by KLCAS to the residents of Lakeview and Lake County, we have joined several community partners at the Community Resource Station located at 223 North F Street in Lakeview. KLCAS' Community Resource Specialist, Julia Solorio, will be available during business hours to accept applications for energy or rental/move in assistance, provide referrals to other community resources and provide information on the programs provided by KLCAS.

Julia shares, "Now serving as a Community Resource Specialist, I've gained a deeper understanding of just how powerful the work of our community partners truly is. Every day, I see firsthand how collaboration and compassion can directly impact the lives of those we serve — in ways both big and small. Whether it's connecting someone with housing support, energy assistance, or simply listening with empathy, each moment matters. What's most rewarding is seeing someone's face light up with relief, hope, or even joy because we were able to help — to be that bridge when things felt uncertain. It's in those moments that I'm reminded of what truly matters. Being part of a network that genuinely cares and shows up for others makes me incredibly proud, and it fuels my passion to keep making a difference, one person at a time."

KLCAS is excited to have a team member at the Community Resource Station to connect Lake County residents to services at KLCAS and other community resources. We believe in the importance of meeting people where they are, providing services that are efficient and supportive and linking community members to resources that can assist them in navigating systemic or situational barriers. To support that approach, a portion of Julia's time will be spent travelling to the smaller communities in Lake County, including Christmas Valley, Summer Lake, Silver Lake and Paisley.

Klamath and Lake Community Action Services is a member of the National Community Action Partnership and the Community Action Network.

Fremont-Winema National Forest

Wanted: Campground Host

LAKEVIEW, OR, May 7, 2025 — Hey campers, have you ever wished that you could spend the entire summer in the mountains next to a lake? Fishing? Hiking? Boating? Wilderness area? Here is your chance! The Fremont-Winema National Forest Recreation Staff is recruiting a volunteer to serve as the primary campground host for Digit Point Campground on the Chemult Ranger District.

The Digit Point Host will be responsible for the following work at Digit Point Campground, Digit Point Day Use, Miller Lake Boat Trailer Parking Area, Miller Lake Boat Launch, and Gideon Day Use: greet visitors, provide visitor information, educate visitors on appropriate use of public lands and rules within recreation sites, request fee compliance at campground, clean and stock restrooms daily, maintain sites by cleaning out fire rings, cleaning picnic tables, removing fee tags from campsites, and picking up litter. Additionally, the host will be responsible for removing full trash bags from trash receptacles, replacing the receptacles with a new trash bag, and hauling the trash in a government vehicle to the Chemult Ranger Station. A government vehicle will be supplied to use for official duties including hauling trash. Host must have a valid state driver's license, and complete a USFS defensive driving tutorial.

Ideally, the Forest would like to have a host in the campground before Independence Day through Labor Day weekend. The host will have 2 scheduled days off midweek; however, they would need to be at the campground over the weekends working with USFS staff.

This is a volunteer position with compensation. The ideal candidate will enjoy helping people, value a spirit of hospitality, love the outdoors, and will be able to explain and remind people about relevant rules for the good of everyone enjoying the campground.

Campground hosts provide their own trailer and occupy a designated campground host site with water & sewage along with propane and a generator.

For information, please contact Danilo Figueroa, Recreation Specialist, at 541-883-6702 or danilo.figueroa@usda.gov
