CHRISTMAS VALLEY LODGE, 1962

Lake County's Christmas Valley Lodge is shown in the photograph above. It was taken by an Oregon Journal photographer in June 1962.

Developers aimed to create a large community with amenities like a lodge, golf course, and air strip, marketing it to attract residents. While a 1962 prediction optimistically foresaw 5,000 residents in five years, initial growth was slow due to issues like bad tax valuations and challenges with development. Although the population only reached 150 by 1970, it grew to over 800 by 1979, and the lodge remains in operation today.

Fremont-Winema National Forest Reopens Popular Fishing Pier

LAKEVIEW, OR, June 10, 2025 — The Fremont-Winema National Forest is excited to announce the reopening of the fishing pier at Lofton Reservoir. The newly constructed pier was funded through the Federal Lands Recreation Enhancement Act, and this enhances public access to fishing, bird watching, and the breathtaking scenery the area is known for. The original pier, built in the mid-1980s, was removed in 2020 due to safety concerns after years of wear from the region's harsh winters and limited seasonal access. After more than three decades of use, inspections confirmed that the aging structure was no longer safe. The New pier is built with stronger, more durable materials and extends farther into the reservoir, improving access for anglers and nature enthusiasts alike. The site also features a picnic table, BBQ grill, and an open, obstacle-free outdoor experience. Conveniently located next to a paved road, the new layout for a more enjoyable site includes a designated space—making it one of the most accessible outdoor experiences on proud to reopen this popular amenity with upgrades that will serve the public for years to come," said Deputy Forest Supervisor Benjamin Goodin. "We're committed to improving outdoor access across the Forest." For additional information, please contact the Bly Ranger District at 541-353-2427

OREGON SUNSTONE

By Patricia Saab

Hold a nugget of Oregon sunstone in your palm, and you will understand why the 1987 Oregon legislature designated it as the official state gemstone. A feldspar member of the labradorite family, it is sometimes called red labradorite. Only in Oregon are sunstones found in fine gem quality. This gemstone is never heated, irradiated, or colored as other gems are, but left entirely natural.

Some Oregon sunstones exhibit a glow from within due to millions of microscopic copper platelets, known as schiller. Colors of the stone vary from clear, champagne, yellow, light pink, salmon, orange, and red to blue-green. Intense red and blue-green are the colors that are most rare.

Native Americans valued sunstone nuggets, trading them across western America and using them in Medicine Wheel ceremonies. Sunstone has been found in burial sites and sacred bundles.

Some value the stone for its alleged metaphysical properties, claiming that it holds a positive energy represented by the power of the sun and mental clarity.

BLM, partners raise money and conservation awareness for youth at annual event

LAKEVIEW, Ore. —The Bureau of Land Management and Pacific Northwest Four Wheel Drive Association teamed up for the 30th consecutive year during Memorial Day weekend to blend outdoor fun with land stewardship at the Christmas Valley Sand Dunes and Lost Forest.

This year, over 20 volunteers rolled up their sleeves to improve the Sand Dunes Wilderness Study Area and Lost Forest Research Natural Area. Their efforts included repairing almost half a mile of fencing along the Lost Forest boundary, protecting fragile habitats from motorized vehicles that can degrade the unique desert plant life.

“Year after year, this event shows the power of partnerships and stewardship,” said Steven Van-Si, Outdoor Recreation Planner BLM Lakeview Field Office. “Thanks to our dedicated volunteers and the Pacific Northwest Four Wheel Drive Association, we’re protecting sensitive landscapes while helping people discover the beauty and importance of the Christmas Valley Sand Dunes and Lost Forest.”

“It’s incredible to give back to a place that means so much to us,” said longtime volunteer Mona Drake. “Every year, we see more people getting involved and caring about the land.”

Sunday’s fun run saw a record turnout, with about 200 people exploring rarely seen corners of the dunes. The event raised around $2,000, not including additional donations, for the Lake County “Don’t Crush the Brush” poster program, which educates youth about wildfire prevention and land stewardship.

-BLM-

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land located primarily in 12 western states, including Alaska, on behalf of the American people. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. Our mission is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of America’s public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations.

North Lake Shines: 3 Local All-Stars & Coach Lead Western Oregon to Big Win!

Congratulations to these three North Lake High School Seniors: Jack Roscoe, Carter Golson, and Logen Grassman for their outstanding performance in the 2025 6-Man All-Star Football Game! And a special shout-out to our very own Coach Barry Anderson for being one of the four coaches selected to coach the All-Star team!

This is a truly historic moment for Western Oregon football, as the 2025 6-man All-Stars achieved the region's first-ever victory in the prestigious All-Star Game! The decisive 39-13 triumph wasn't just a win; it marked a monumental shift, and the core of this groundbreaking achievement came directly from our own in North Lake.

Our local players were absolutely instrumental in this landmark victory. Jack Roscoe, serving as a West Team Captain and earning the title of Defensive MVP of the game, was a force on both sides of the ball, playing a key role on the offensive line and at cornerback. His stellar performance was capped by a crucial moment in the end zone when he recovered a fumble for a touchdown!

Logen Grassman was a defensive powerhouse throughout the game, logging several great tackles and almost returning an interception for a touchdown, showcasing his undeniable impact on that side of the ball.

Carter Golson certainly made his presence felt, delivering one of the game's best hits in the final moments, leaving a memorable mark on this historic win.

When asked about the game, Coach Anderson expressed immense pride in his players: "I'm proud of all four of our seniors this year. Carter, Logen, Jack, and Ben Duffner [who did not attend the game] all showed incredible courage, leadership, and demonstrated great fundamentals throughout the whole game. Our blocking and tackling was on point, and we stayed true to North Lake Football by being very physical."

Their incredible achievements bring immense and historic pride to our community. We are profoundly proud of these young men and their coach for not just representing our community, but for being at the very heart of Western Oregon's first 6-Man All-Star Game win! Congratulations Carter, Logen, Jack, Ben, and Coach Anderson for etching North Lake's name into the history books! Their hard work and talent have made us all incredibly proud.
