The Melody Maker

In the small town of Harmony Grove, 10-year-old Oliver lived in a world without music. A mysterious silence had fallen over the town years ago, and no one could remember how to sing or play instruments. The joy that once filled the streets during Christmas had faded to a quiet melancholy.

Oliver, however, felt a strange tingling in his fingers whenever he thought about the stories his grandmother told him about music. On the first day of December, while helping his parents bring down the old Christmas decorations, he discovered a peculiar object in a dusty box - a small, golden hand-crank music box.

Curious, Oliver began to turn the crank. At first, nothing happened, but as he persisted, a faint, sweet melody emerged. The sound was so beautiful that Oliver felt tears in his eyes, though he didn't understand why.

Excited by his discovery, Oliver took the music box to the town square. As he played it, a small crowd gathered, their eyes wide with wonder at the unfamiliar sounds. An elderly man in the crowd began to hum along, surprising himself. Soon, others joined in, their voices rusty but growing stronger.

Each day, Oliver brought the music box to a different part of town. With every turn of the crank, more townspeople remembered how to sing. Children started to clap and dance, and adults found themselves whistling as they worked.

As Christmas approached, the town began to change. People smiled more, laughed louder, and treated each other with newfound kindness. The baker started singing as he kneaded dough, and the postman whistled while delivering mail.

On Christmas Eve, Oliver stood in the town square, playing the music box one last time. To his amazement, the entire town gathered around him, their voices joining in perfect harmony to sing carols they had long forgotten.

That night, as Oliver lay in bed, he heard something magical - the soft chiming of bells in the distance. He rushed to the window and saw a sight that took his breath away: Santa's sleigh soaring across the starry sky, drawn by reindeer whose bells rang out clearly in the night.

Oliver realized that by bringing music back to Harmony Grove, he had restored the Christmas spirit and the town's place on Santa's map. From that year on, Harmony Grove was filled with song, especially during the holiday season, reminding everyone of the power of music to bring joy, unite people, and keep the magic of Christmas alive in their hearts.

The Forgotten Reindeer

In a cozy barn at the North Pole, far from Santa's bustling workshop, lived Ember, a young reindeer with a unique feature - her nose glowed a warm orange, like embers in a fireplace. While the other reindeer practiced flying and played reindeer games, Ember was often left out, her unusual nose making her feel different and unwanted.

As Christmas Eve approached, excitement filled the air. The reindeer team was chosen, and once again, Ember wasn't included. Feeling dejected, she wandered to the edge of the North Pole, where the northern lights danced in the sky.

"I wish I could be useful," Ember sighed, her nose glowing softly in the darkness.

Suddenly, she heard a faint cry for help. Following the sound, Ember discovered an elf named Tinsel who had gotten lost while gathering special starlight for Santa's sleigh.

"I can't find my way back in this darkness," Tinsel said, shivering.

Ember's nose brightened with determination. "I can guide you," she offered, her orange glow cutting through the polar night.

As they journeyed back, Ember's warm light not only showed the way but also melted patches of ice, creating a safe path. When they finally reached Santa's workshop, they found everyone in a panic. The northern lights were unusually dim, and Santa feared he wouldn't be able to navigate properly.

Tinsel exclaimed, "Santa! Ember's nose - it's as warm and bright as a fireplace. She could light the way!"

Santa's eyes twinkled as he looked at Ember. "My dear, your unique gift is exactly what we need. Will you help guide my sleigh tonight?"

Ember's heart swelled with joy as she took her place at the front of the team. As they soared through the sky, her orange glow not only lit the way but also brought extra warmth to every home they visited.

From that Christmas on, Ember flew proudly with Santa's team. Her story spread far and wide, teaching children everywhere that our differences can be our greatest strengths, and that there's a special place for everyone in the magic of Christmas.

Pet Winter Safety Tips

LIMIT CAR TRAVEL

Never leave your pet in your car.

HIDING IN THE HOOD

Warm engines attract cats and small animals. Bang on your hood before starting the engine.

PAW PATROL

Check regularly and wipe away salt after outdoor walks.

GET COZY

Provide warm beds for naps.

STORM PREP

Create disaster kit with food, water and medication that can last 5 days.

STAY INDOORS

Keep cats and dogs inside. Consider providing dry, well-insulated shelter for feral and neighborhood cats.

SWEATER WEATHER

Play dress up with cozy sweaters and coats.

BE ALERT

Signs of hypothermia include: shivering, whining, sluggish or anxious behavior.

1 THE COLD OUTDOORS

See a dog out in the cold without proper shelter? Contact local law enforcement. Dogs left in extreme temperatures, especially without food and shelter, are at risk of hypothermia, death, and frostbite.

DID YOU KNOW?

Animal neglect is a misdemeanor crime in all 50 states.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

🕒 Note the date, time, exact location, and type of animal(s) involved.

📞 Follow up in a few days if the situation has not been remedied.

CHRISTMAS BROWNIES

Ingredients

- 1 box Vanilla Cake Mix
- 2 Large Eggs
- ½ cup Unsalted Butter (melted)
- 2 cups M&M's

Instructions

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Spray a 9x9-inch pan with nonstick spray. Line the bottom with parchment paper, allowing it to hang over two sides for easy removal of the cookie bars.

In a large bowl, stir the first three ingredients together until well combined. Add M&M's and stir until well combined.

Spread and pat the cookie dough in the pan. Level the top with a spatula. Bake for approximately 25 to 35 minutes, or until golden brown. A toothpick inserted into the center should come out clean or with only a few crumbs, not raw batter.

Allow the cookie bars to cool before cutting them, as this will help them firm up.

Using the parchment paper handles, lift the cookie from the pan and cut into bars.

On the right, the same man sits in the same armchair, now wearing a red sweater, holding a cup of coffee. The background is a warm, orange-toned room with a fireplace and a potted plant.
