2026 Tax Season: What You Need to Know

By Ashley Anderson/ Editor

As the first envelopes from the IRS and your employer arrive in your mailbox, it's time to move from New Year's resolutions to tax preparations. Filing early is the best way to speed up your refund and protect yourself against identity theft. Here are the essential tips for the 2026 filing season:

1. Look for the "Big Three" New Deductions

For the 2025 tax year (filing now in 2026), several new tax breaks have been introduced that you won't want to miss:

- The Tip Deduction: If you work in the service industry, you may be able to deduct a significant portion of your tip income from your taxable total.
- Overtime Pay Relief: Certain workers can now deduct the "extra" half of their time-and-a-half pay, helping you keep more of those hard-earned overtime dollars.
- Car Loan Interest: Check if your vehicle qualifies for the new deduction on interest paid for qualified U.S.-built vehicles.

2. Organize Your "Paper Trail"

Before you sit down with a professional or software, gather these four categories of documents:

- Income: W-2s from employers and 1099s for side gigs or interest. Note: The reporting threshold for 1099-MISC has risen to $2,000 for the current year.
- Adjustments: Records of student loan interest, HSA contributions, and educator expenses.
- Deductions: If you plan to itemize, keep receipts for charitable gifts, medical bills, and mortgage interest.
- Personal Info: Social Security numbers for all dependents and your 2024 tax return for your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI).

3. Seniors: Check the New Limits

Taxpayers aged 65 and older may be eligible for an enhanced standard deduction this year. This "Senior Deduction" can significantly lower your tax bill—ensure you are using Form 1040-SR, which features larger print and a dedicated deduction table for seniors.

4. Direct Deposit is King

The IRS continues to emphasize that the fastest way to get your refund is to file electronically and choose direct deposit. Most refunds are issued within 21 days when using this method, compared to months for paper checks.

WINTER SAFETY TIPS

IT'S GETTING COLD OUTSIDE,
SO STAY SAFE AND WARM WITH THESE TIPS!

FACTS

Nearly half (48%) of all home-heating fires occur in Dec, Jan, & Feb

From 2014-2018, heating equipment fires caused $1.1 billion in damages!

81% of home heating fire deaths were from space heaters!

Over half (54%) of home heating deaths were from heating equipment too close to flammable items (such as clothing, bedding, furniture)

SOLUTIONS

Test smoke alarms once a month; use fireplace screens to prevent sparks

Have heating equipment and chimneys cleaned and inspected every year by a qualified professional

Have a three-foot "kid-free zone" near heaters; turn heaters off when you leave the room

Keep anything that can burn at least three-feet away from heating equipment, like the furnace, fireplace, wood stove, or portable space heater

A Glimpse Into The Time Capsule

A major land rush is under way in Oregon! Christmas Valley—112 square miles of rich Oregon heartland—has opened for public sale. Good land is scarce, and this is good land: level, fertile, with plenty of sweet water close to the surface. Every parcel fronts on a graded road, with grazing horses, cattle, sheep, fields of alfalfa, barley, oats in the area. On the shores of Christmas Valley Lake, a new resort is being built: airstrip, lodge (already completed), golf course, dude ranch, quarterhorse track. Backed by multi-million-dollar resources of the M. Penn Phillips Co.

BANK OF AMERICA, Dept. L-91
Azusa, California

Gentlemen: I wish to purchase from the M. Penn Phillips Co.:

☐ 5-acre parcel at $790 in Christmas Valley. Enclosed is $10 (cash, check, money order) as down payment. Payments: $10 per month.

☐ Two adjoining 5-acre parcels at $1500 (thereby saving $80). Enclosed is $10 (cash, check, money order) as down payment. Payments: $17 per month.

You are authorized to use the enclosed funds when you can send me by return mail a purchase contract executed by the M. Penn Phillips Co. covering land purchased by me together with map showing the exact location of my property plus pictures of Christmas Valley and the surrounding country.

If within 30 days I decide to cancel the sale, you will refund my money.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ ZONE _____ STATE _____

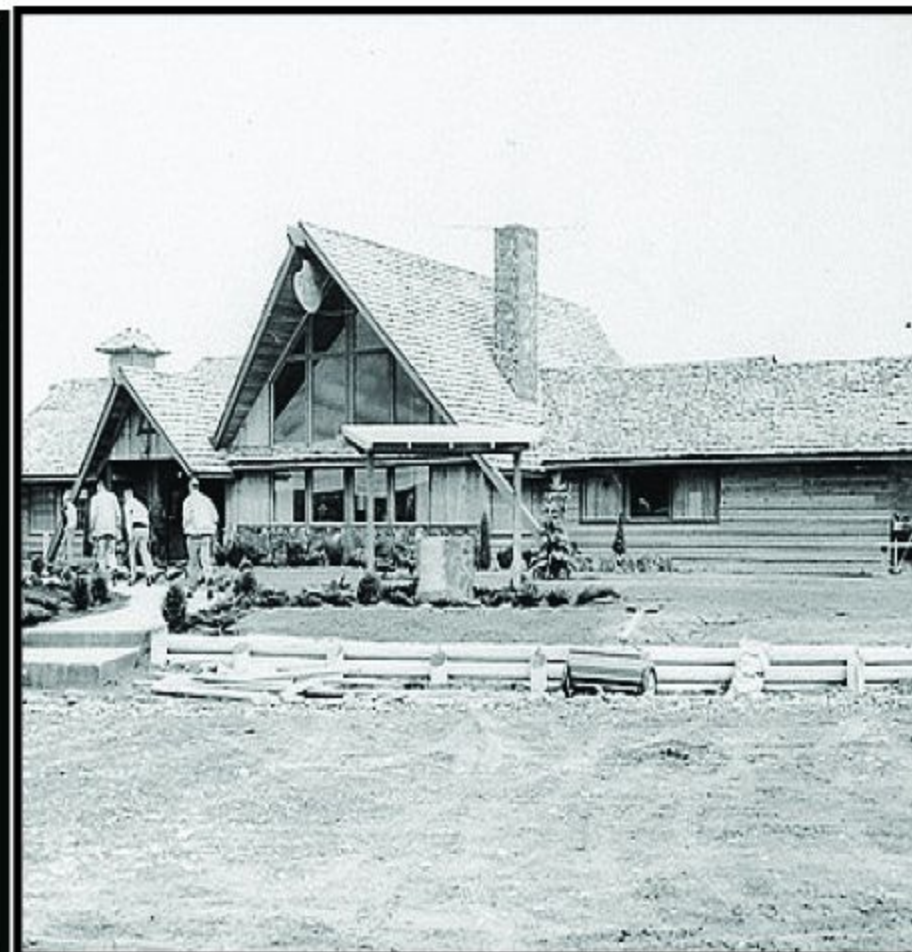

Bank References: Bank of America, Azusa, California; U.S. National Bank, Bend, Ore.

The time is now. For $10—if you act now—you can tie up 5 acres of land in your own name, and control a $790 investment that may be worth many times that much as the Pacific Northwest boom gathers momentum. This may be your last chance to speculate with good land at this low cost.

YOU RISK NOTHING. Send $10 today for 5 acres of land (or $10 for 10 acres) in Christmas Valley, Oregon. By return mail, you will receive a map showing the exact location of your property, descriptive material, and your contract.

If you are not 100% satisfied with your purchase, or change your mind for any reason within 30 days, every penny you have sent will be refunded immediately.

This advertisement, published in the Sept. 28, 1962, issue of LIFE Magazine, was typical of the style of real-estate developer M. Penn Phillips. The five-acre parcels he was hawking for $790 in this advertisement are selling for around $3,000 today, which — adjusted for inflation — is about half their original price. (Image: LIFE Magazine)

TV GUIDE

Did you know?

On July 20, 1969, an estimated 600 million people—the largest TV audience in history at the time—watched live as Neil Armstrong took the first steps on the moon. This moment defined 1960s optimism, proving that “the impossible” was achievable through collective effort and innovation.
